

MIMI wants to Fly

By Naia Tar

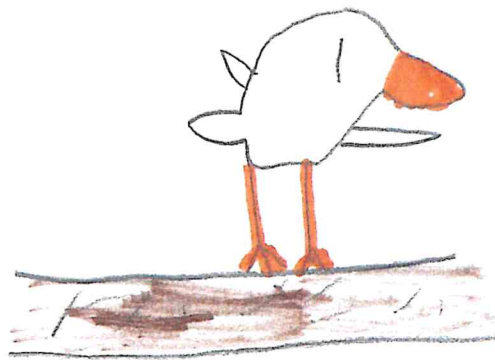

Once there was a cat named Mimi.
She was 8 years old. She liked to cuddle and play. Whenever she found a ball she pounced on it.

Mimi wanted to fly. She asked her friends lion and tiger if they could help her to fly but they said "You can't fly! You're a cat!" They told her to go find a bird.

Mimi found a baby bird.
The bird said "I'm a baby, you might eat me!" Mimi said "I won't!" The baby said to go get his mommy. Mimi asked the bird's mom if she could fly on her back but the mommy bird said "I'm too small Go ask that swan over there."

Mimi went to the Swan. The Swan said "If you want to fly you can fly on me or fly by jumping onto something and jumping off really high. Mimi was happy."

Mimi called all the friends
she met on her journey and they had a party. Mimi chose the Swan's second idea and tried it out at the party, it was so fun!

The End