

Buddy Learns A Lesson

By Sloane Zimney

For Buddy's 9th birthday he got a lottorey ticket. He won the lottorey! He was so happy!

Buddy didn't know what to do with the money, he had food and water and he had people who loved him. He had everything he needed.

That night Buddy was wide awake. He was thinking of what he should do with his money.

Next morning Buddy was eating breakfast he had a perfect idea he could give his money to a Charley!

That night
good because any worries.

Buddy slept so
he didn't have

Next week he would give it to the charity. Finally the day was here.
His owner Sloane drove him to the charity.

When he gave the money to the charity he felt proud.

The next day they had a party to celebrate that buddy did something good!

Don't need
everything
to be happy

~~do a~~ Buddy learned a lesson you don't need everything
to be happy!

The

End

