

The Way of Pets

Have you ever wondered what's going through pet's minds when you play with them? Well, Blaze will tell you.

Hi my name is Blaze. When my owners come outside, they look at me and try to guess what I'm thinking. They always guess wrong.

What's even worse is the cat. That lazy bum finds ways to sneak in the house.

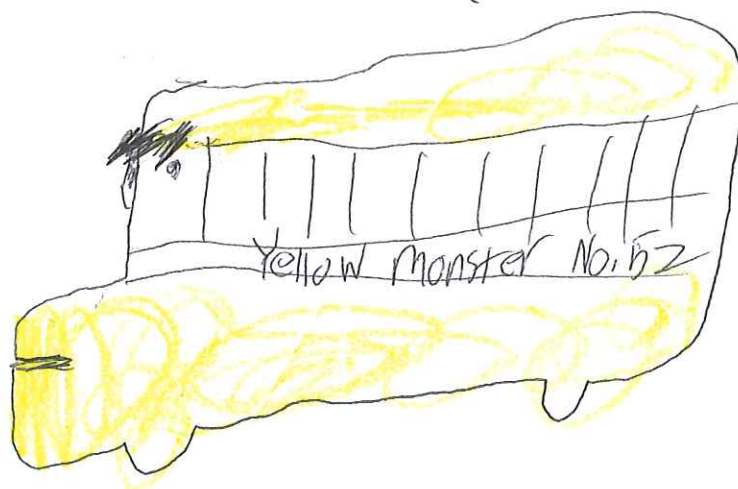

We get along sometimes, but she has an attitude.

I love my people. Especially, Jane. She stays out when everyone leaves.

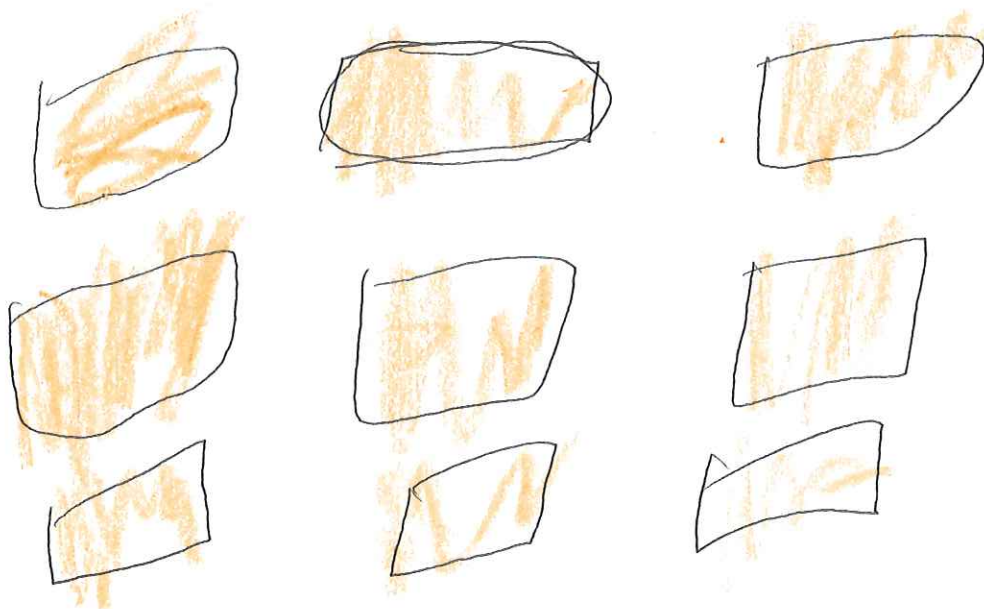

She pets and pets me and I love it the most.

I hate it when my people run away to the yellow monster.
They tell me they're going to school, but it still looks like a big yellow monster.

They leave me for three quarters of the day.

Dogs go to school too. My teacher is Mr. Woofsalot.

While my owner is not looking, I slip away to school, but we learn different stuff.

Ahh! That cat ate all my food. It normally eats out of the fridge secretly, but it ate my food instead.

I have an idea! I'll eat her food...heh, heh, heh.

Ouch! I'll never do that again. Never make a cat angry.

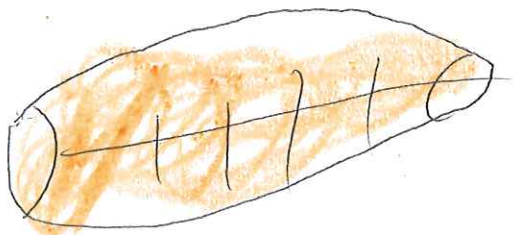

Also, cat food is delicious.

My favorite food is pickles. They're so good. My mouth waters when you say it.

I stole one before and now I keep on doing it.

My favorite toy is the football. It looks like an oval shape, not a foot.

Its new name is brown oval ball.

I spend most of my time playing with Roy, my friend.

We play don't pass my property and don't eat my food and don't touch my stick.

At the end of the day my people come off the big yellow monster. They are always happy to see me and pet me and play with me.

It's the best time of the day.

Even though they don't always understand me, I still love them.

Life as a dog is pretty good, even if I have to share the yard with that stupid cat.
