

Rocky and Tucker

By: Avery

Once upon a time there were two dogs. One was named Tucker the other one was Rocky. Tucker was orange and Rocky was black. They were brothers and I think they loved each other. Tucker was a thief he stole socks and gave them to Rocky. Once Rocky got them he knew exactly what to do. He swallowed them whole. This is a story about one of their adventures.

They went on a walk by the river and a man was walking his dog. The dog said "run, run there's a monster!" Rocky and Tucker looked in the water and saw a dark shadow swim away! It was really big, they thought it was a monster too. But then tucker said we did not see it right? Right said Rocky. Then we do not know. If it's not a monster then what was it? Let's find out! No! said Rocky. why? I don't like monsters, they creep me out! Tucker just said it might not be a monster you cry puppy! I'm not a cry puppy! Then prove it! Ok, let's find that monster! So, they started to go the direction of which the thing swam. They walked for about 10 minutes until they saw it! But it saw them too! It swam away so fast they had to sprint to catch up! They ran so far! Finally it stopped, but it was caught on some weeds in the water. The thing lifted its head.... it was a sea turtle!

It said will you help me get out please? My name is Martha. Sure, I am tucker and I'm Rocky. How did you get way out here Rocky asked as he ripped the weeds off her shell. I was playing hide and seek and I got lost! We will help you, just let us get a boat. About 20 minutes later they were back with a boat and tucker said, follow us. Tucker can I surf? Sure! As they surfed through the water into the ocean Rocky fell. He opened his eyes and he saw lines of sea turtles all swimming. Tucker jumped in and saw it too! Martha said thanks guys! You mean this is your home? Asked Rocky. Yes, it is. It is beautiful! Thanks! Bye Martha!
