

KUED (UNIVERSITY OF UTAH) EEO PUBLIC FILE REPORT

(June 1, 2019 thru May 31, 2020)

RECRUITMENT SOURCES USED FOR FULL-TIME VACANCIES

Appendix A includes a mailing list of referral organizations, who receive notice of station full-time job vacancies. Contact information is included. Code numbers are assigned each organization on the list and are referenced, where applicable, for each job opening.

The mailing list is open to any subscriber so the list of individuals and/or organizations that receive information about job postings may be broader than the referral source list in Appendix A. New subscribers may be an organization or a private individual. An invitation is sent annually to new organizations asking if it will provide more contact information.

KUED's Supplemental Outreach Initiatives June 1, 2019 to May 31, 2020

This report summarizes KUED's supplementary outreach to broaden dissemination of employment opportunities with the station and information about careers in public media.

1. Participation in at least four job fairs by station personnel who have substantial responsibility in making hiring decisions

KUED Human Resources Analyst participated in University of Utah Career Fairs on August 21, 2019 and February 4, 2020. He visited with students and fair visitors about available internships, volunteer opportunities and career opportunities in broadcasting as well as current openings.

As a department of the University of Utah, KUED was served by the University's Human Resources Recruitment Coordinator during the reporting period. This recruiter attended several community and educational job fairs to inform visitors about open positions and discuss career opportunities at the University, including information on positions with KUED. The recruiter advised KUED's Human Resources Analyst of attendees who expressed interest in broadcasting generally or station opportunities. Specific events included August 21, 2019: University of Utah Student Job Fair; September 6, 2019: University of Utah Professional Development Center Kickoff event; October 1, 2019: October 30, 2019: Utah's Heroes Job Fair; February 4, 2020: University of Utah Student Job Fair; February 6, 2020: University of Utah Spring Career Fair.

3. Co-sponsoring of at least one job fair with organizations in the business and professional community whose membership includes substantial participation by women and minorities

- KUED/PBS Utah participated in all activities to co-host a job fair in conjunction with the Utah Broadcasters Association including on-air announcements, web advertisements, sending flyers, etc. but the fair had to be cancelled a few days before the event due to COVID-19.

4. Participation in at least four events, including conventions, career days, workshops, and similar activities, sponsored by organizations representing groups present in the community interested in broadcast employment issues;

KUED staff members provide tours to educate the public regarding the station and broadcast industry. Tours give community members and groups an opportunity to view station facilities including the studio, production sound booth, the KUER Public Radio Station, and visitors may visit KUED's community affairs program, "Contact."

The KUED Management personnel provided a tour of the station on February 26th, 2020 to a school group consisting of junior high school students. They showed them the facilities and discussed the broadcasting industry. The group then toured the radio station with the KUER General Manager.

KUED has a "Station Tour" page on its website. <https://www.kued.org/about>. Community agencies, groups, or private individuals can request a tour through this link.

The KUED Host/Producer participated at the KUED Booth at Pride and answered questions about station programming and her role at KUED (now PBS Utah) June 1, 2019.

The KUED Host/Producer was a speaker at Unleash: Make a stronger impact in Utah and Beyond at the Utah Women in Leadership Conference on September 25, 2019.

The KUED Host/Producer discussed her broadcasting career at a workshop event called "Her Time to Lead" on February 27, 2020. The event was sponsored by the Utah Jazz, and 150-200 high school girls from local high schools attended.

5. Establishment of an internship program designed to assist members of the community to acquire skills needed for broadcast employment

KUED Project Intern October 14 2019- January 25 2020. The KUED Project Intern served the Community Engagement Program and Education Program. The intern assisted with projects and events related to KUED through project preparation, production and on-site event support.

KUED TV Intern September 2019- May 2020. KUED-TV, Utah's PBS station, hosted an intern for the student year 2019-2020 in the production department. The intern was responsible for a host of archival introductory practices. The Intern had the opportunity to assist with metadata creation and cataloguing, archival pull requests, and material digitization using a variety of formats.

KUED Robert K. Avery Intern October 2019- Current. KUED Digital Media Robert K. Avery Internship hosted an intern for student year 2019 through May 2020. This intern had the opportunity to work at KUED for an intensive internship experience in its Digital Media Department.

6. Participation in job banks, Internet programs, and other programs designed to promote outreach generally (i.e., outreach that is not primarily directed to providing notification of specific job vacancies)

The Community Engagement program participates in community events, festivals, and hosts screenings to promote PBS and local programming as well as activities at the station. Those who staff the events bring inviting employment cards designed to recruit those who are interested in careers in broadcasting or volunteer opportunities at PBS Utah. In FY20, the Community Engagement Manager hired an intern who was interested in public broadcasting to assist with events and program support.

July 30, 2019 The KUED Education Coordinator attended the American Graduate Round Table event to present on KUED as a community convener, discuss careers in broadcasting, and promote Verve.

PBS Utah partnered with KUER to give private tours of our studios to children who completed the Reading Marathon and their families. The tours were scheduled the morning of February 8th, 2020 and saw 160 children and parents. Four stops were made around the station with experts in production, engineering, and broadcast sharing their expertise and answering questions. We also provided photo opportunities at our Sesame Street photo booth, coloring Sesame Street masks, and breakfast.

8. Establishment of training programs designed to enable station personnel to acquire skills that could qualify them for higher level positions

KUED is a department within the University of Utah. All full-time employees are eligible to receive half of their tuition paid for classes at the University. Employees often take advantage of this benefit to further their education. In addition, KUED occasionally pays the remaining 50% for classes taken by employees that are in a related area or can assist them improve or gain additional job skills. Employees also attend classes outside the University which may be paid by the organization.

KUED Administration supports staff participation in conferences that will educate them to develop additional skills, increase technical expertise, and gain a greater understanding of the industry. Staff attended four conferences during the reporting period (CSPI: September and October, 2019, TRAC: January, 2020, NETA: January, 2020 & PMBA: May, 2020).

10. Participation in at least four events or programs sponsored by educational institutions relating to career opportunities in broadcasting

A KUED Senior Producer acts as the head of the Documentary Studies Minor for the department of Film and Media Arts at the University of Utah. This is a non-paid position offered based on her related production experience with the station. <https://www.film.utah.edu/search?q=nancy+green> (<http://www.film.utah.edu/programs/documentary-studies-minor>)

The KUED Host/Producer spoke to high school journalism students about careers in broadcast journalism at Juan Diego Catholic High school on October 25, 2019.

The KUED Host/Producer spoke at PBS YoPro Sacramento event on November 1, 2019 on the topic of career path and career advice. Her topic was called Unleash Your Voice: Tips to Write, Speak, & Make a more Powerful Impact at Work.

The KUED Host/Producer spoke to communications students in Marcie Young Cancio's class at Salt Lake Community College about Battle Over Bears Ears, This is Utah, and what it takes to become a TV host/producer on November 21, 2019.

14. Provision of training to management level personnel as to methods of ensuring equal employment opportunity and preventing discrimination

A Diversity Training was held for station staff on August 29, 2019. The presenter was Associate Director of Training at University of Utah Human Resources. The training covered the impact of diversity and inclusion in their work and professional spaces. There were also discussions about inclusive work environments and identifying behaviors they could personally practice as well as strategies to enhance workforce diversity. The focus of the training was to raise awareness of diversity and inclusion for managers as well as identify tangible actions for the group.

The Office of Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Training was held virtually because of COVID19 guidelines on May 12, 2020 and May 20, 2020. The Training was provided by the Training and Development Specialist for the OEO/AA Office. The Training covered University of Utah non-discrimination policies, sexual misconduct policies, and disability access policies.

All Station employees (full and part-time) were required to complete the Corporation for Public Broadcasting online workplace harassment prevention training made available to staff between July 26, 2019 and August 31, 2019. The intent of the training was designed to increase awareness and knowledge of applicable laws surrounding harassment prevention and how they impact employee current job responsibilities.

16. Participation in other activities designed by the station reasonably calculated to further the goal of disseminating information as to employment opportunities in broadcasting to job candidates who might otherwise be unaware of such opportunities

All full-time positions are posted with the University of Utah Human Resources website. Positions posted on the University of Utah Career Portal automatically filter to other agency websites such as the Utah Workforce Services job bank (through a signed contract), which makes postings available to Workforce Services agencies throughout the state of Utah, Career Services at the University of Utah, KUED website, and HigherEd.jobs. Job sites such as Indeed, Glassdoor, Myjobs.com, etc. scrape job notices off the University of Utah Human Resources webpage.

KUED sends out a weekly e-Newsletter to approximately 3,000 people notifying them of KUED special productions, PBS programs, film series and discussions, etc. This number includes KUED members and non- members. Included in this newsletter is an announcement asking if organizations referring job seekers would like to participate on a Mail list and receive notice about job openings at the station.
