

A LESSON TO GO OUTSIDE

by Amanda Nawarathna

This book is dedicated to all the young readers.

Suddenly, I saw Pinda, one of my School

One day, I went to the big Shopping mall in my town with my parents. I enjoyed a lot with fun ridings, food, and new cloths.

②

Suddenly, I saw Pinda, one of my school friends. She was standing next to a big door with balloons and she looked like little nervous.

③

"Hey Pinda! Nice to see you" I screamed excitedly, but when she saw me she started crying. I was so upset and asked

"Why Pinda, why are you crying?"

Then, Pinda said "I I think I got lost.

I came with my mom then I stopped here
for a moment to see this beautiful balloons.

When I turned around from balloons, my...

my mom was not here. I missed my mom.

How can I go home now? I want my mom."

Pinda cried so badly.

"Don't worry Pinda, we will try to find your mom." my mom said. I gave her a piece of chocolate and a drink to comfort her, but she refused them and continue crying. So, I hold her hand.

My dad asked Pinda whether she know her mom's phone number to give a call,
but she doesn't know that.

Started and it asked Pinda's mom to come to the mall office because Pinda is waiting for her mom.

Then, we went to the mall office with Pinda. My dad told the story to the mall officer. Suddenly, an announcement started and it asked Pinda's mom to come to the mall office because Pinda is waiting there for her mom.

Few minutes later, Pinda's mom ran to the mall office. "MOMMY!" Pinda screamed when she saw her mom. They both were so happy and Pinda's mom thanks us a lot.

I felt very happy because I helped Pinda. My parents said always stay with them when we go out, otherwise, I will get lost like Pinda. So, I learned that lesson.
