

Penguin Cone from home

by
Dallas
Holder

once upon a time
there was a penguin
and he lived at the South pole. One day he found a cave. In the cave
there was some crystals.
He kept on walking
and walking!

He found the way
out, he saw a spot next to the water. He took a
nap. The ice broke
and he floated away.
He woke up on a iceberg!

A big wave came and washed him on
to a sandy beach. There he found a surfboard and a coconut tree. He had so much fun spending
the day on the island! The End.

