

The Lost crown

Stella

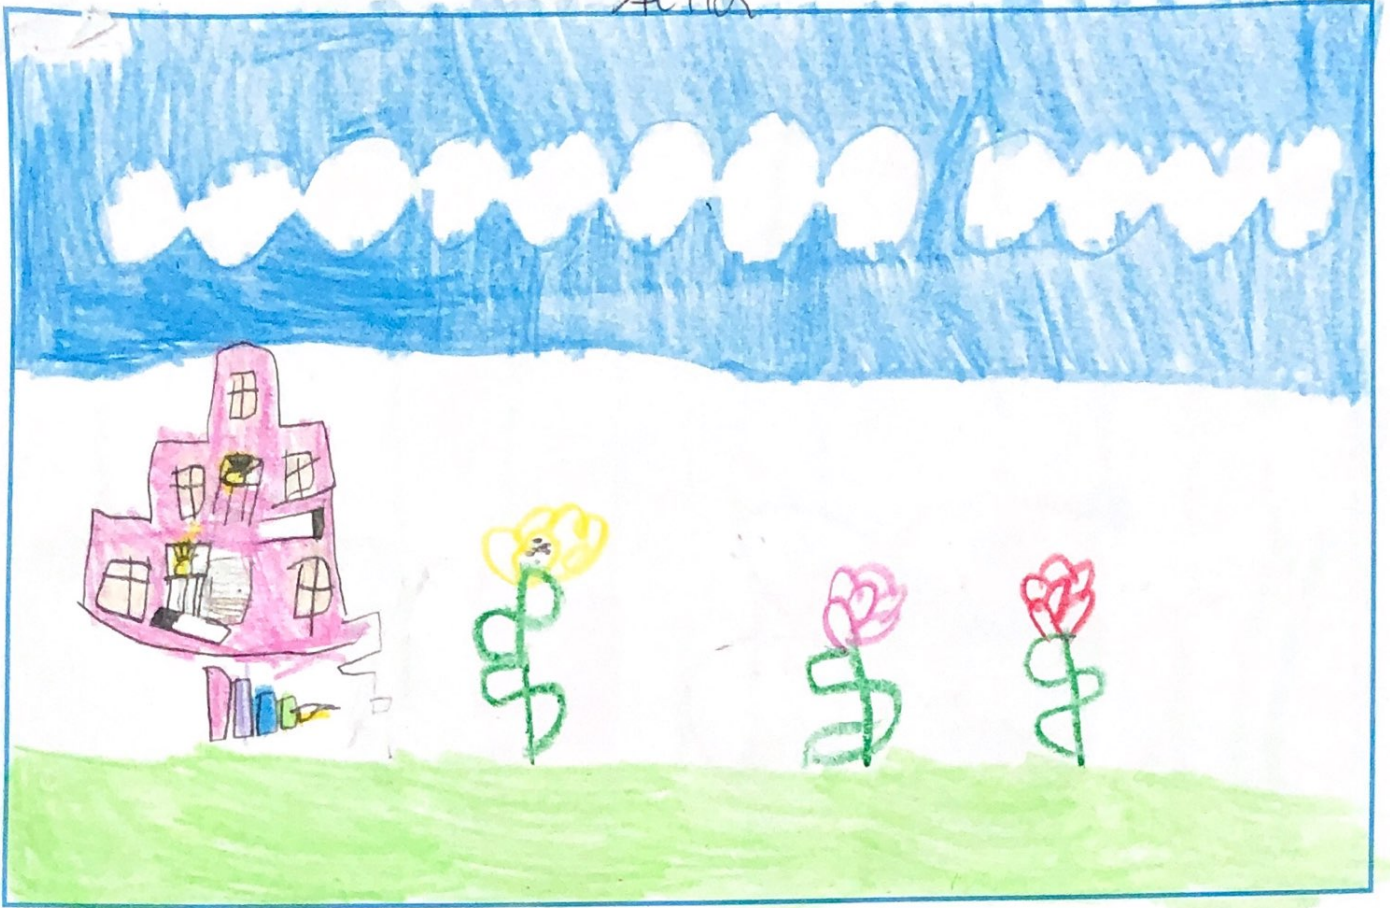

Rosslund

Stella

Once upon a time
there lived two dogs.
One was black and one was brown. Their names were Bella and Rose.

Stella

They lived in a castle.

They both had their own bed rooms. They each had their own crowns because they were princesses.

Stella

One day Bella woke up and she could not find her crown. She was sad and blamed Rose for taking it.
This made Rose upset because

Stella

she did not take it.

Rose told Bella that she would help her look for her crown. They looked all over Bella's room and found it

Stella

Green want I
but wun do you want

in her treat box. It had fallen off when she took a treat! Bella felt bad for blaming Rose and said sorry then gave her a big treat!