

The Stolen Rainbow

By: Cambree Sabot

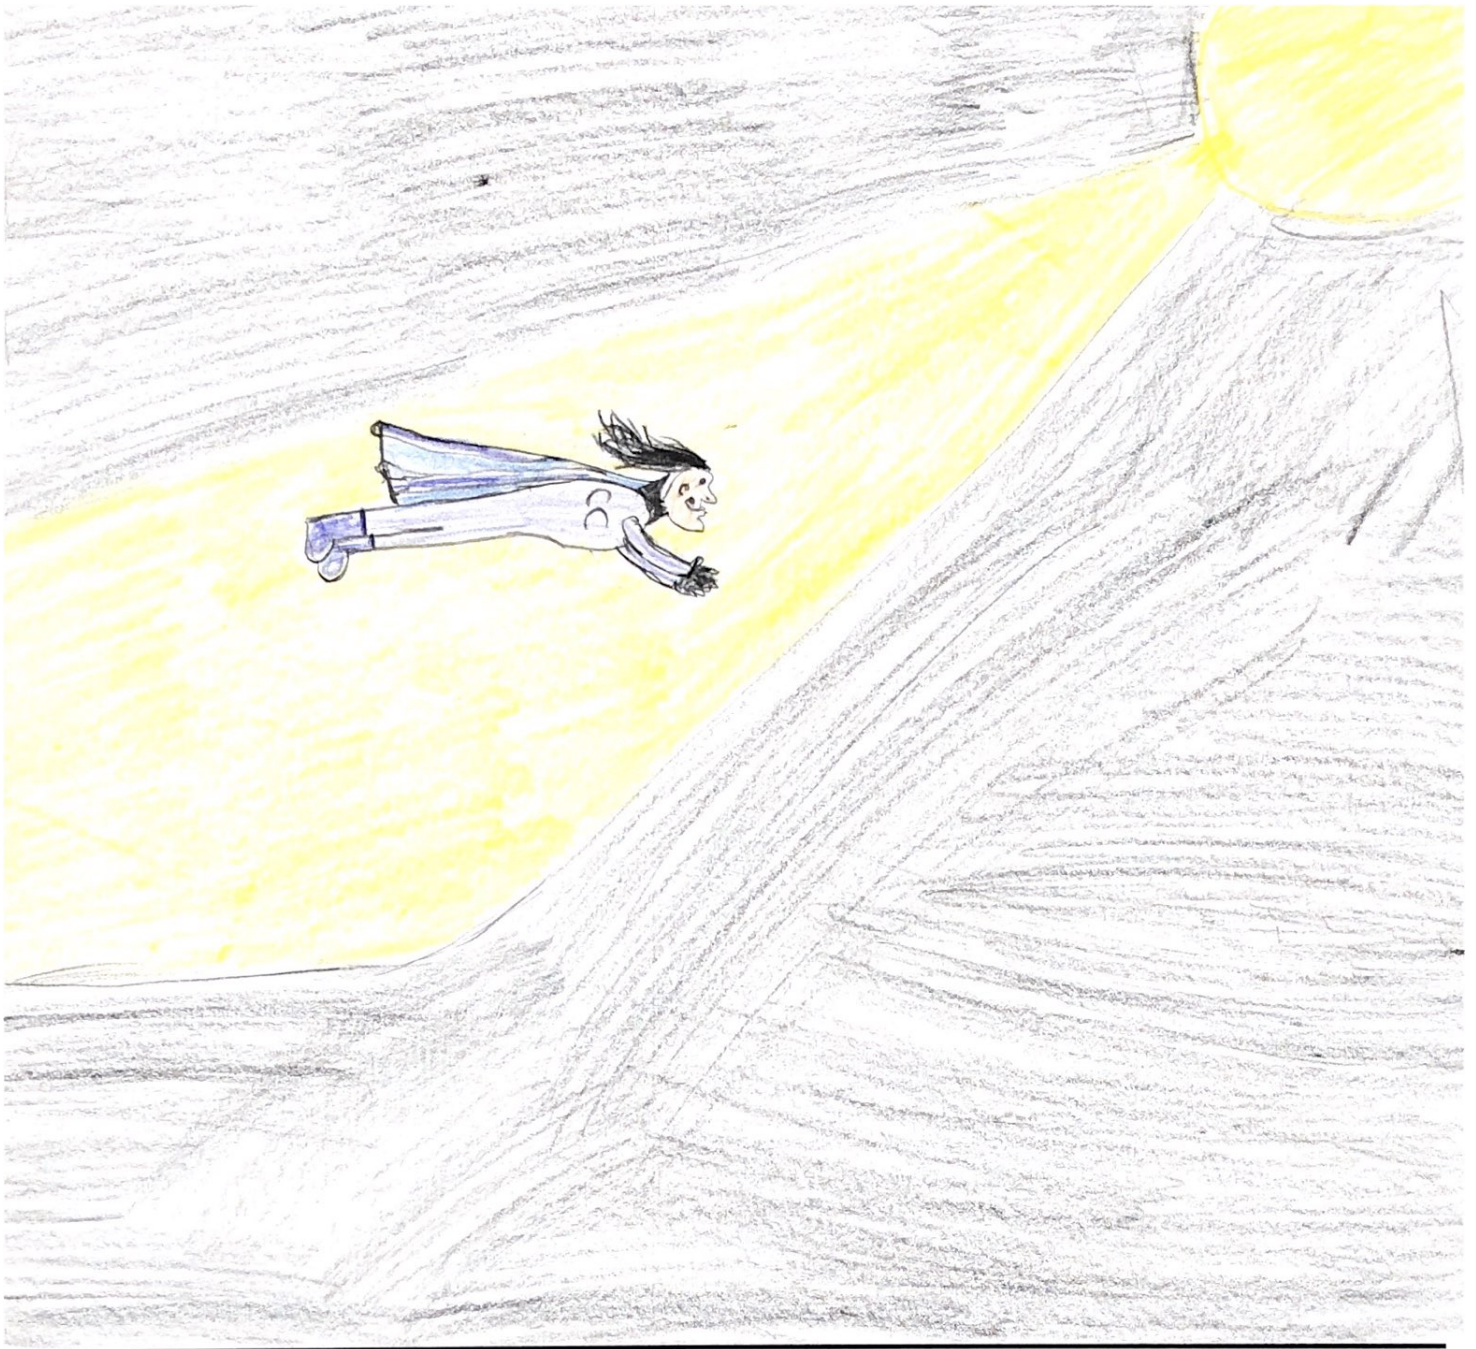

---

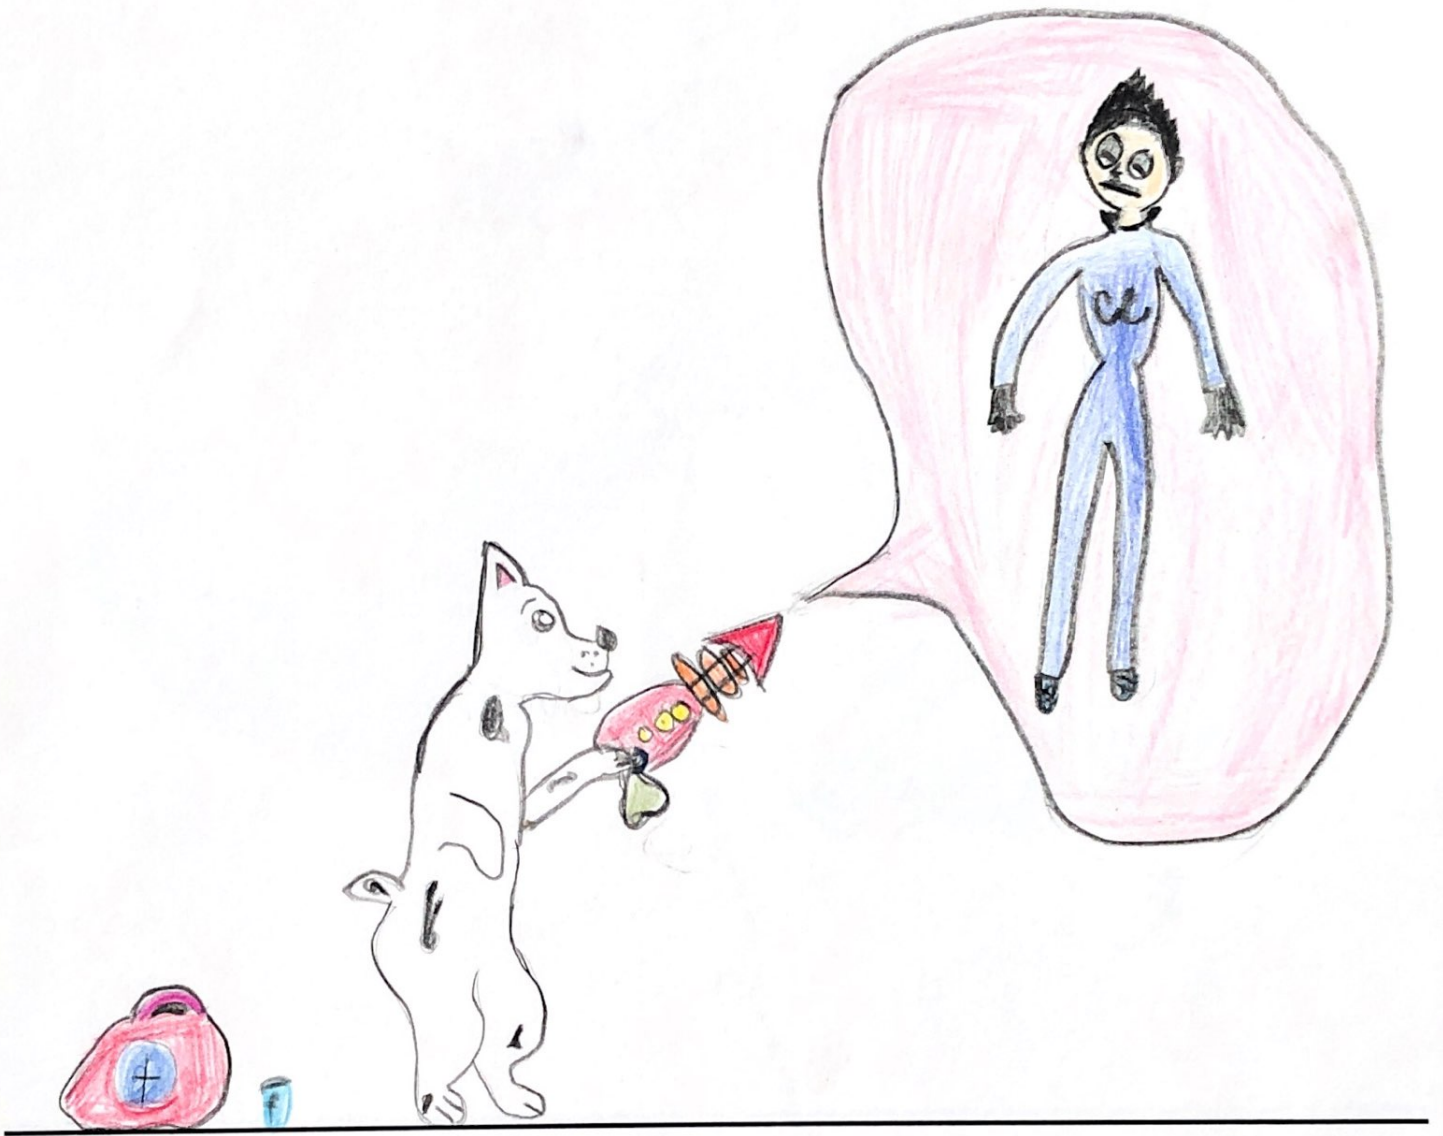

It was a beautiful sunny day when me and my dog, Jett, were outside playing. Jett looked up and saw a rainbow way up high. We both said "I LOVE RAINBOWS!"

Then a few minutes later there was complete darkness, except for one shooting beam of light. We followed the light and that's where we saw... Captain Crime flying in the sky!

Jett said "I will get him with my flying powers" and drank a flying potion and went after him. He grabbed a super weapon from our emergency bag and shot a cloud of truth spray that made him stuck in a bubble.

Jett asked him "did you steal the rainbow?"
Captain Crime said "Yes I did with my rope. I swung my rope around and around and caught the rainbow and pulled it down and made darkness".

---

Jett knew he had to do something quick so he flew after him and tied them together with rope and flew back down to the ground. Jett said "let go of the rainbow and I'll let you go". Captain Crime said "OK" and he did just that.

---

Now everyone can see the beautiful rainbow
again. Jett saved the day!

The End
