

Distance Learning Teachers Needed

Employer: Mississippi Public Broadcasting

Department: Education

Division: Instructional Resources

Position Overview:

Mississippi Public Broadcasting is looking for a part-time distance learning teachers to provide instruction through its Digital Education Network (DEN). The teachers is required to provide instruction for four (8) hours daily, Monday through Friday. Each teacher is assigned three schools per class, one to three times daily. Certification is required in dual enrollment and in subject matter listed below. Salary will depend on experience and qualification.

Qualification needed:

- Certification in subject matter
- Ability to teach 9th -12th grade High School
- Available for four hours daily from August 2021-May 2022 (7:30 a.m. -4:30 p.m.)
- Standard Courses and Dual Enrollment for each course, if needed
 - Spanish 1 & 11 (Dual Enrollment recommended but not mandatory)
- Strong communication skills. Each school will have a facilitator in the classroom that will assist the distance learning teacher.
- Comfort with using distance learning equipment and technology (will train)

Contact:

Please submit your resume to Margie.Banks@mpbonline.org. On-the-job training is provided to operate distance learning equipment.