WELCOME

We have a new pet, "Cookie" the hamster. Cookie is gluggy, orange and white!
Cookie is like an owl
because he sleeps during the day and plays during the night!

One night Cookie

heard a sound and saw a rat at his cage. "Hello!"
said Cookie. "Hello!" said the rat. "I am Ticky, I can show you around the house." So Ticky stole some food and ate a lot.
Cookie and Ticky played all night! They also listened to music!

The next day Tom found the tracks and the mess that ticky has made.

Cookie worried that ticky would get caught in the trap that Tom made.

That night Cookie warned Ticky that Mom found out
the mess they made.

Cookie told Ticky that she had set up a trap.

Cookie made Ticky to promise not to do bad things so they could play.

Now Cookie and Ticky can play and Mom and Dad are not angry!

Ticky comes to play with Cookie every night!

Cookie finally finds his first friend!
