Penguingo by Simeon Ruehle

Joseph the penguin and Mary the flamingo met and fell in love in the bird area of a cruise ship by a tropical island.

(Joseph in the col)

How could they live together?

Joseph likes it cold, snowy and icy.

Mary likes it warm with waves and sunshine.

They decided to build a giant castle with both hot and cold rooms.

They also had a nursery for the new baby penguin, "quingo!"

They lived happily ever after.
The End.
