The Invisible Car

Written and Illustrated by

Annabelle

Once upon a time in Car Land there was a car named Sam.

Sam the car was invisible. Since he was invisible, Sam had to hold a stick so
other cars could see him.

Sam was a little sad because he always had to hold a stick. The stick was yellow. He got tired of holding it.

The yellow stick was fun to play with, but Sam the Car did not play with it very much because it might...

It Was Windy and could, so the yellow Stick Flew away
even though he wasn't playing with it!

Sam the Car was Sad and nervous. He Started painting to feel better.

Now the other cars
knew where Sam the car was because he always did art
when he rolled.

His Art Was
beautiful! It Was Calarful and full of shapes. Sam the Car became famoUs in car Land!
