

Oakley N.

The Lollipop Girl

3rd Place

East- First Grade

This is Eva. She lives in a house on Lollipop Lane. She loves lollipops. More then anything she wanted to turn her hair rainbow colors.

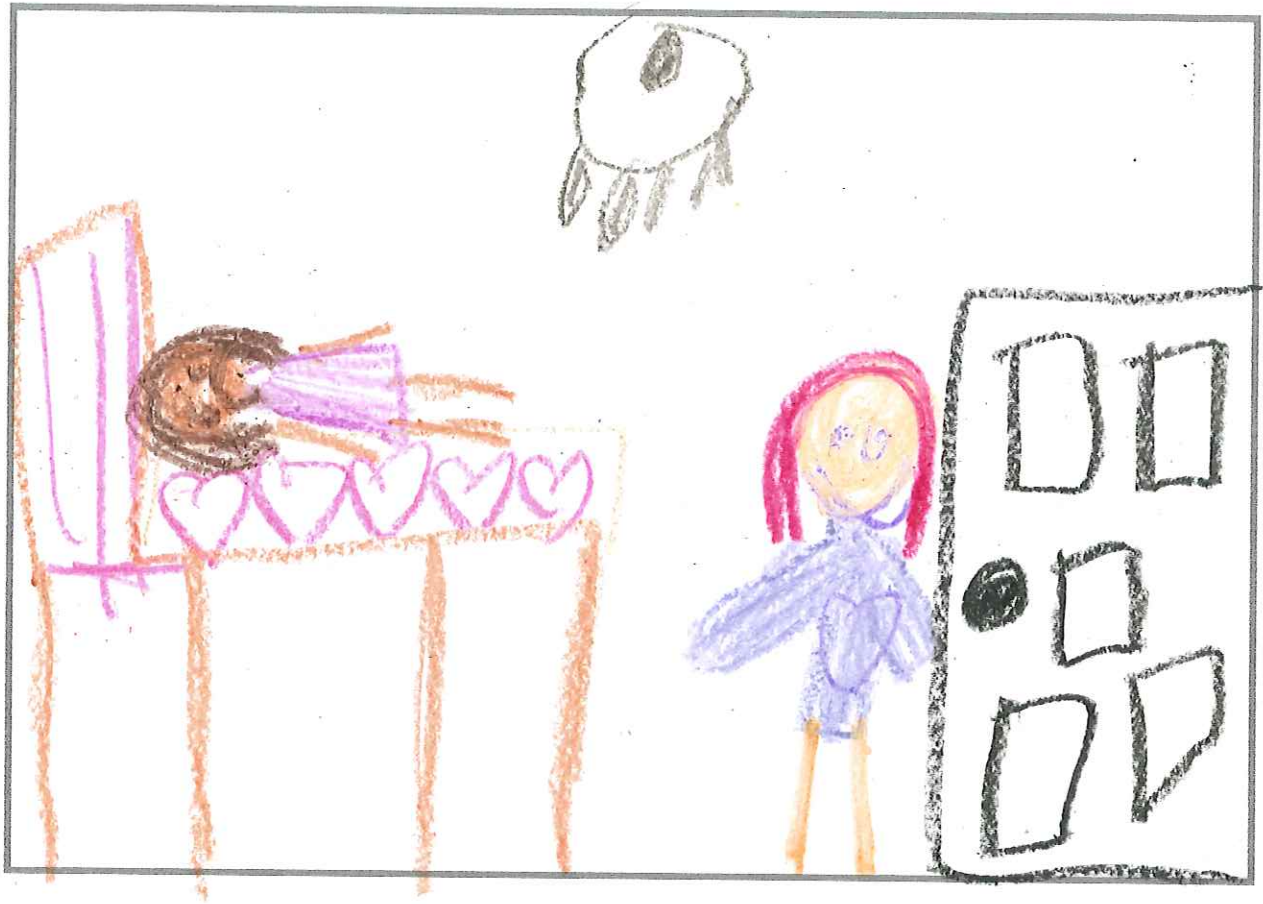

One day she saw something on the porch. It was a very, very sparkly lollipop in a jar, so she ran to get it. When she got back inside she ate it.

All of a sudden, her hair turned rainbow! She was so surprised at that moment. Next, on a rainy day, her mother said, "We're going on a walk!!"

On the walk, the rain fell stronger.
When they got home, she looked in the mirror to see her colors were gone.

She felt terrible, so she sat on her bed and pulled the covers over her head. "My colors, there gone." Eva said. Then there was a knock on her door. "Why are you crying?" Her mother asked. "Because, because," Eva muttered, "I hate how I look."

"Honey you look beutifel." Her mother said as she sat next to her, "Just look in the mirror."

Eva said, "I acshally like it." After Mom left she told her pet, Fuzz, "I like myself." She lived a happy life just the way she was. THE END

