The Dragon and the

Jelly bean

By Magen

Once there was a white dragon.
He was bullied a lot because of his color and he looks different from the other dragons. He wanted to be like the other colorful dragons.

One day, he saved an old man who couldn't walk because he was tired. The old man told the white dragon about a magical jelly bean.

"Did you hear the rumor?" he said.
"What rumor?" the dragon said.

'About the magical jelly bean that can turn you different colors and give you powers!! Then the old guy explained that it was in a deep hole in a maze.

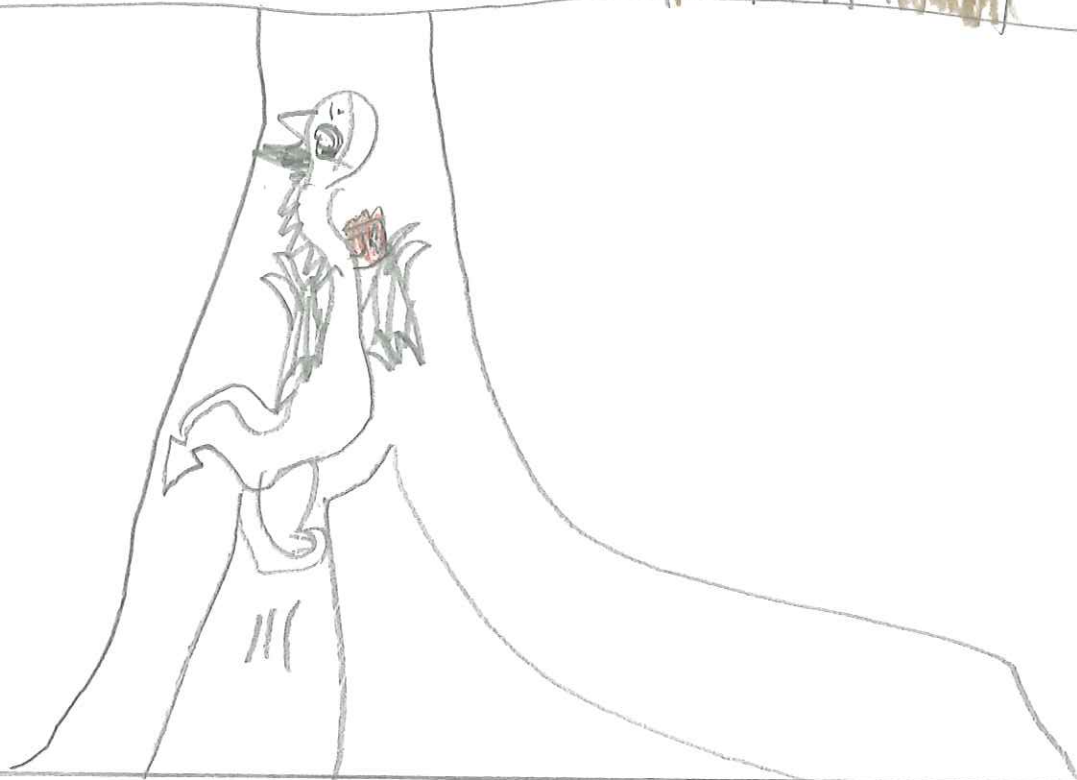

So the dragon went to find it but it was not easy. But after 10 weeks, he found a dark hole. "Maybe this is the hole the old man was talking about thought the dragon."

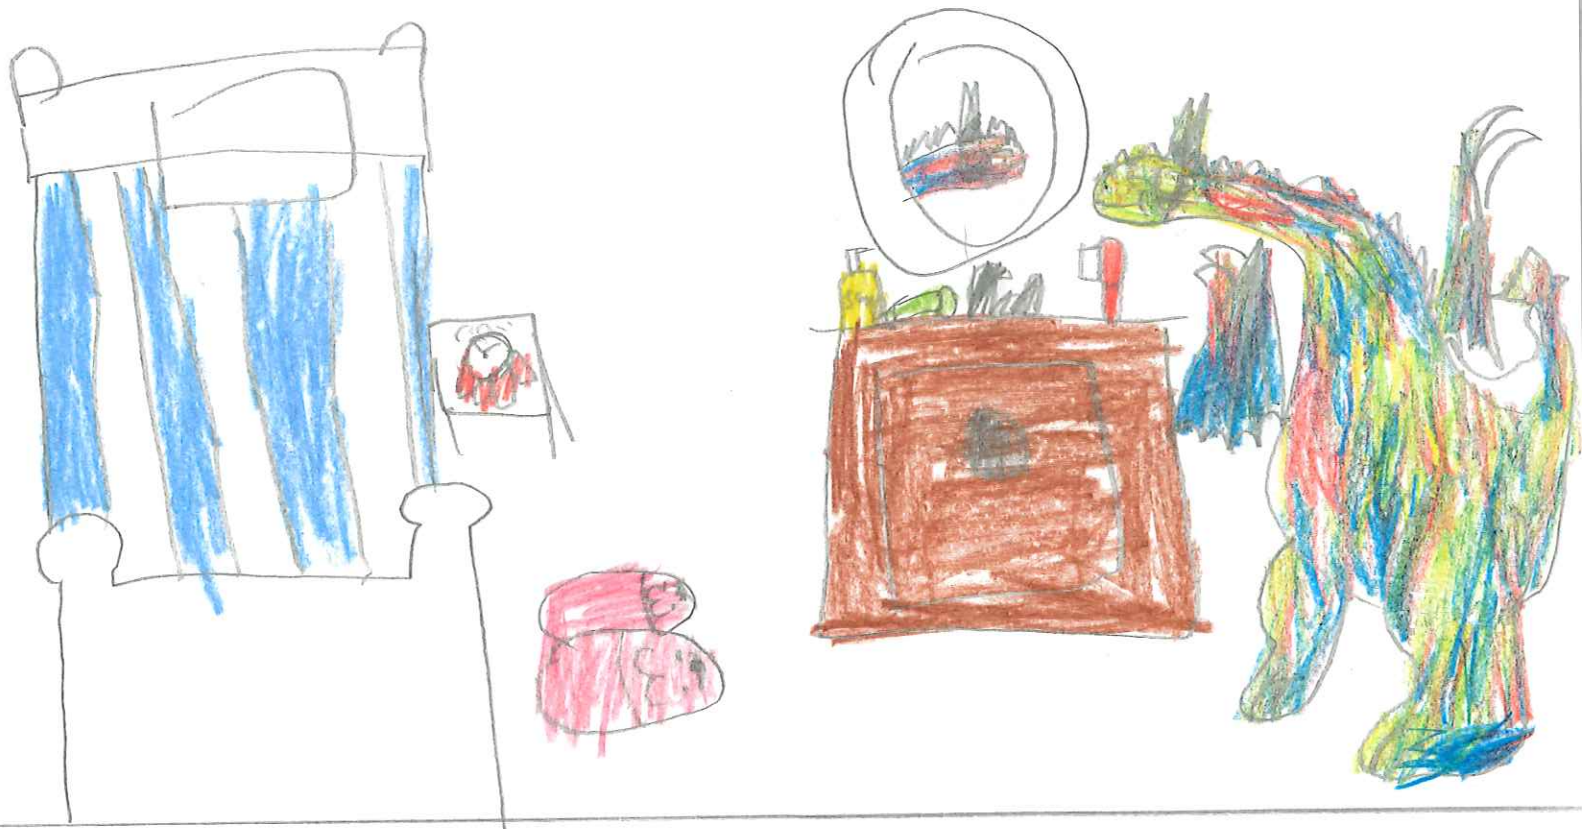

He went down the hole and there were three tunnels. He went down the tunnels but there was nothing in them. So the dragon decided to dig and he dug day and night.

Finally he found the magical jelly bean! It was a rainbow color.

The dragon tightly held the jelly bean and flew out. He ate the jelly bean and it did not taste good nor bitter. Then he went back to his house and went to sleep.

The next day, when he woke up, he looked at the mirror and he noticed that he had different colors!! He changed into a rainbow dragon!

He went outside and he saw the old man. The old man said "Are you the white dragon?" The dragon said "How did you know?" The old man said "Because I can tell because you are beautiful inside and out!! The dragon smiled.
