The Sunny SNOWMAN

Sander:

One snowy morning at Frank the Snowman's house, he was having a magnificent dream. But then his best friend Isa woke him up.

When he woke up he asked, "What is going on?"
Isa the sandman wondered if he wanted to go to the beach with her.

"I'm sorry, I can't go because I would melt into a puddle." Then he started crying.

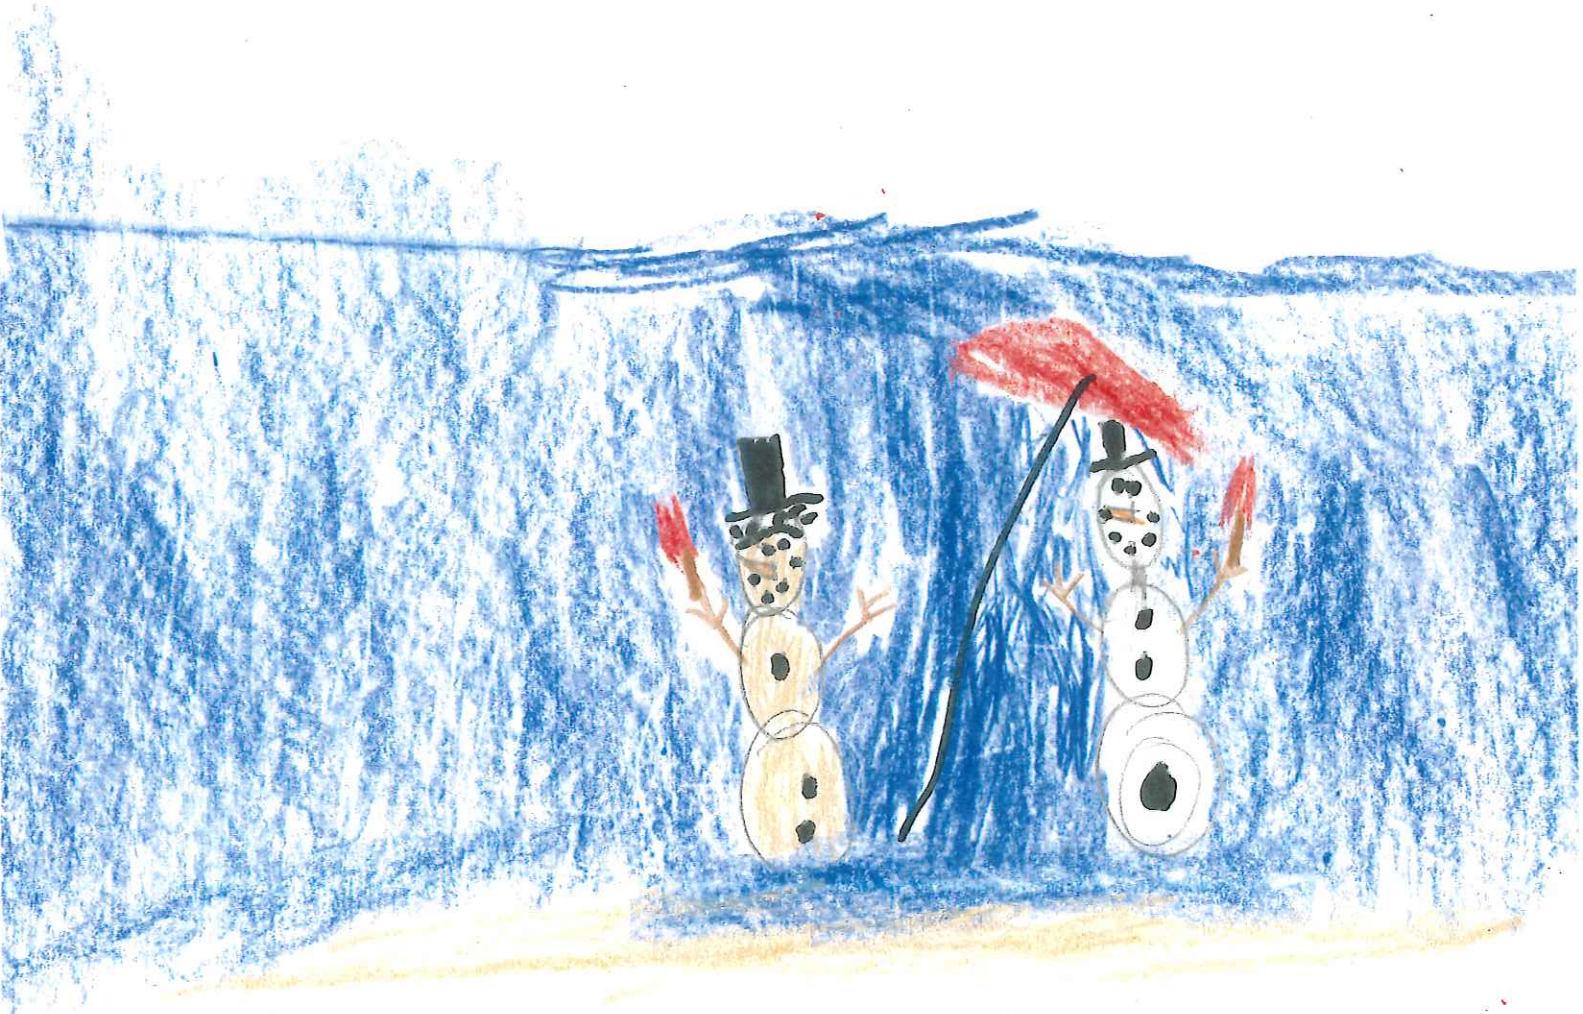

The next day Isa was at the Cold Store. She was looking for some device that could be cool in hot climates so her friend Frank could go to the beach with her.

Twenty minutes later she found an umbrella that had plastic hanging over the side and on the inside top it had a cold air conditioner that could get as cold as -93 degrees. So she bought it.

Finally she started going to Frank's house. Frank was really thrilled when he heard the news that he could go to the lollipop beach.

They went to the beach and set up the new umbrella that Isa bought for all of their fun adventures. First, they made big sandcastles. Second, they went boating with the umbrella over the boat. Third, they moved the umbrella to the dock so they could go fishing.

After that, it was time to chill and have some red popsicles. Finally, they went surfing. Frank's surfboard had the umbrella attached to it.

With the cool umbrella, Frank was able to have an amazing beach day with Isa and will have many more beach days to come.
