Mr. Waffles and his syrup.

It was the middle of summer and a funny waffle named Mr. Waffles wanted sticky syrup for his bath. Mr. Waffles could not find syrup in his house so he was very sad.

Mr. Waffles needed to buy more syrup. So he went on Amazon but they were sold out. He went to Walmart but they were also sold out.

The next day, he went to Target and looked for syrup. They were also sold out!

Mr. Waffles decided he was going to find his own syrup. He went to the fun library and checked out an old book on where syrup comes from.

Then he went and found some maple trees. He collected the sap from a maple tree and cooked it until he had sticky syrup! Now, Mr. Waffles can finally have his syrup bath!
