Hi, I'm Mia, and I'm nine. I just moved to [REDACTED] Idaho! Yay! Can I tell you a secret? Can you keep it a secret? Oh, good. This might sound crazy, but I have superpowers! One superpower is if I draw something, then whisper "Come alive," the drawing comes to life. I can also shapeshift, read minds, see visions of the future, and control the elements. Mom yelled, "Mia, time to go to bed!" I answered, "OK, mom!" Tomorrow is the first day of school. Well, goodnight, see you at school tomorrow.

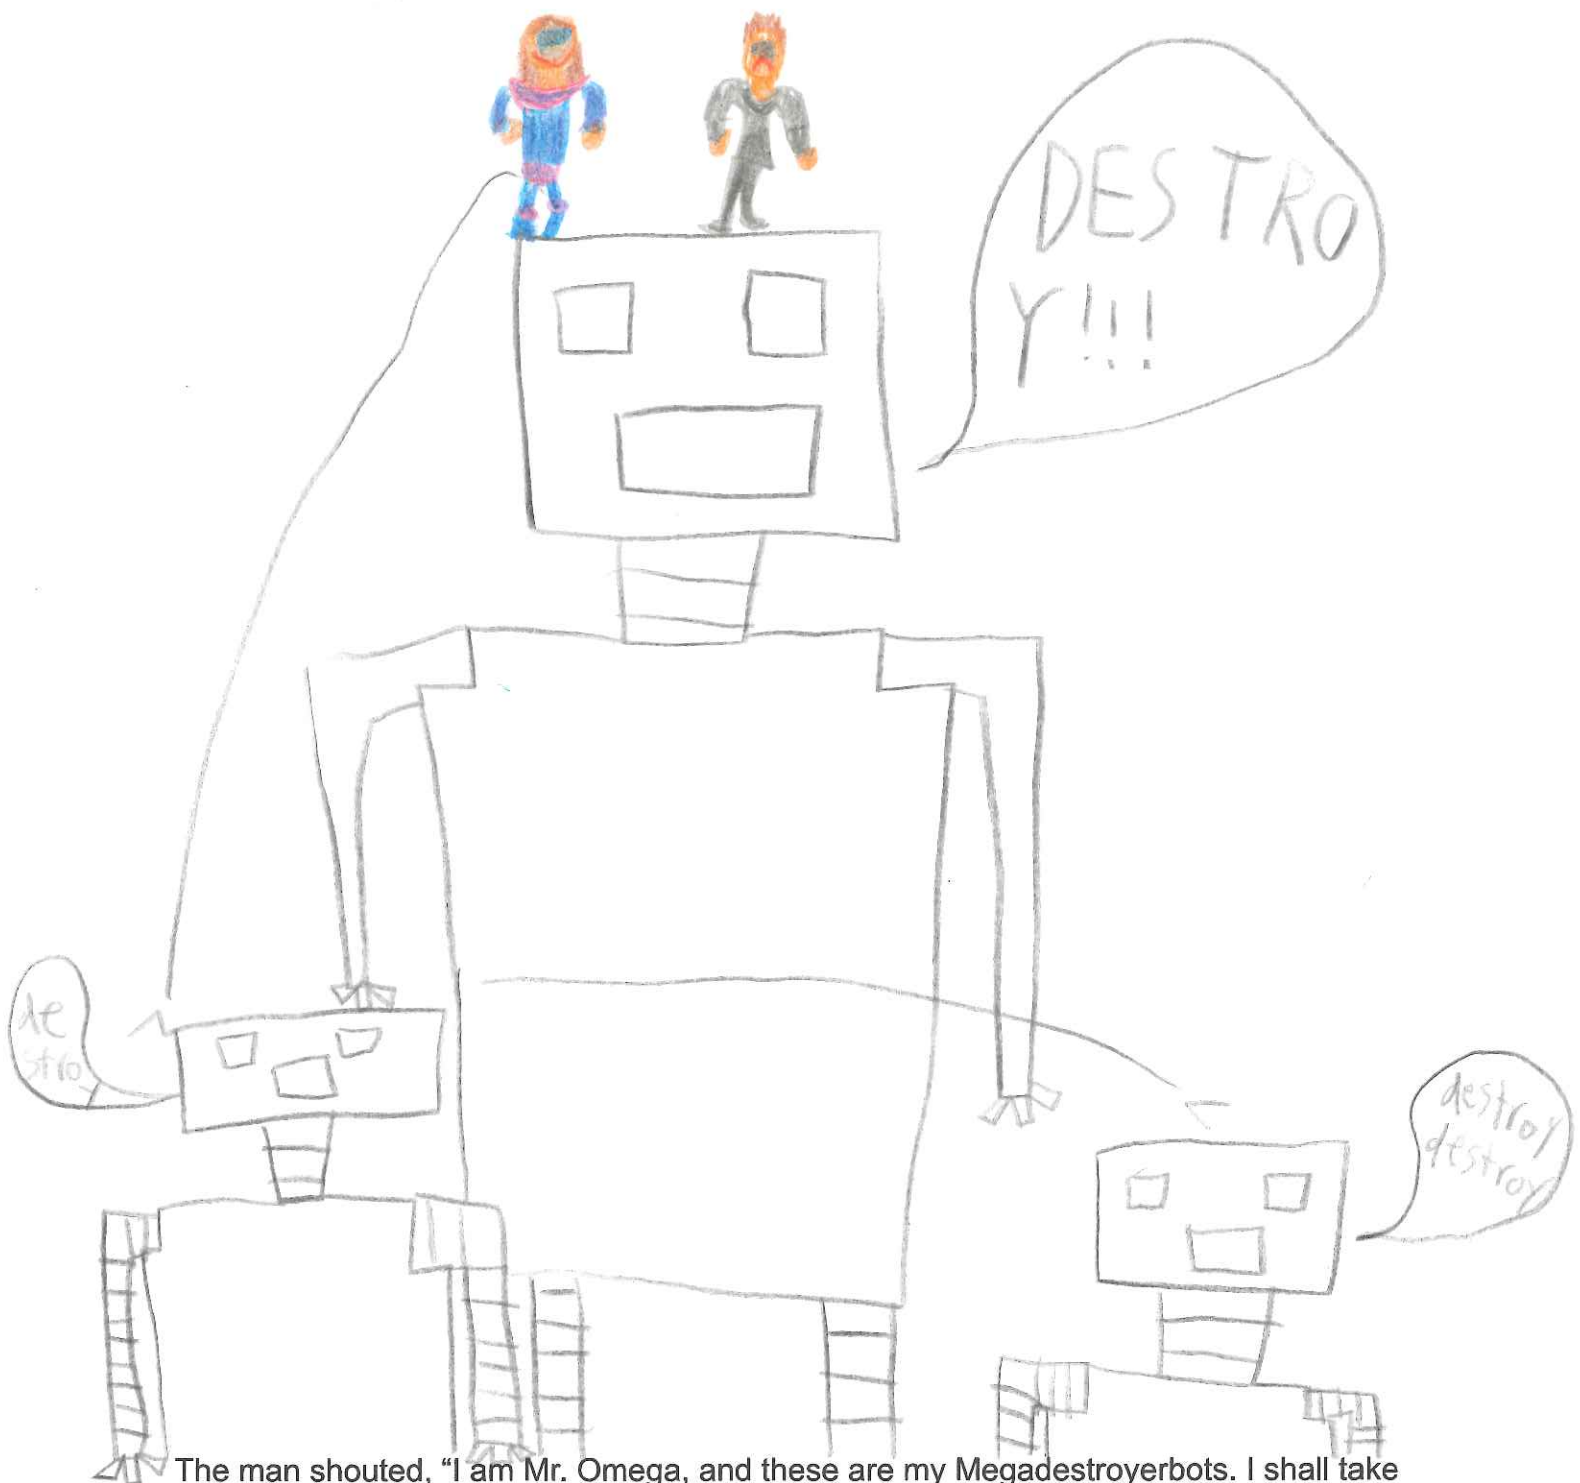

The next morning, Mom came into my bedroom and said, "Wake up sleepy head. It's time for school." I jumped out of bed, ran to the window, threw open my curtains and looked outside. There was a GIANT metal foot on the lawn. Mom raced outside to take a closer look. I thought, "This is a job for Shira." Shira is my Superhero name. No one knows that me and Shira are the same person....except for you now. So, I put on my shiny teal bodysuit with purple pink cuffs and flew on the wind outside.

Outside, I saw giant silver robots stomping on buildings! I noticed one robot that was bigger than the rest, with a man wearing a black mask and black bodysuit with silver cuffs standing on top. I knew this was a supervillain I hadn't met before.

The man shouted, "I am Mr. Omega, and these are my Megadestroyerbots. I shall take over the city! Mwa, ha,ha, ha." I thought to myself, "A new villain right when I moved here? Oh, man!" So, I, Shira, hopped from robot to robot, until I got to Mr. Omega's robot. Once I got to him, we had an epic battle.

Hit! Smack! Kick! Whack! Punch!

Grizzly Attack!

Then, one last move. I made a tornado to blast Mr. Omega and his robots out of the valley. I won! Everybody clapped and cheered. Somebody shouted, "Shira saved the day!" Today was an AMAZING day!.....

"Mom? Are you okay? Where are you?"
