Ena the Elephant and the Cranky Crocodiles

2nd Place East- First Grade

Ena was sad. She missed her family. "Please can you let me across?" she said.

"Why?" The crocodiles said, "We want friends, but no one talks nice to us."
"I'm sorry I talked rudely," Ena said. "You looked scary. My family is on the other side."
"We are not scary. We would let you across. Our names are Crocky and Tootsie," said the crocodiles. "Can we be friends?"

"Yes. I'm Ena"

The crocodiles let Ena go to the other side of the river.
