HIGHLIGHTS

Farm to Fork Wyoming Food Freedom (Parts 1 & 2) Thu. June 4 | 7pm

With the passage of the Wyoming Food Freedom Act in 2015 and its subsequent expansion in 2023, the state's local food economy shifted from one of the nation's most regulated to a leader in the deregulation of direct-to-consumer farm and cottage foods.

The Living Dream: 100 Years of Rocky Mountain National Park Sun. June 7 | 10:30pm

Humans have visited Rocky Mountain National Park for centuries. Native Americans came for spiritual renewal, while mountain men arrived dreaming of furs and gold—only to find something else. In this extraordinary landscape, dreams have been made, lost and made again.

Killing the Shepherd Sun. June 14 | 2pm

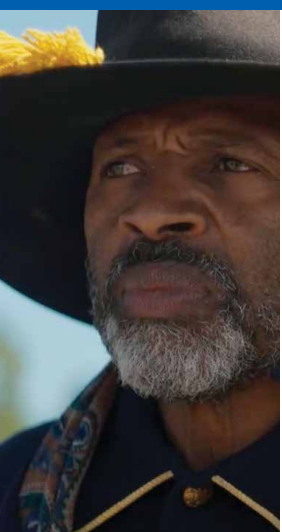

Follow a remote African community led by a woman chief fighting to restore wildlife and break the grip of poverty. As poaching, hunger, disease and corruption close in, the chief and a safari operator attempt to rebuild stability, but powerful forces threaten to destroy everything they are trying to protect.

The Last Keeper Wed. June 17 | 8pm

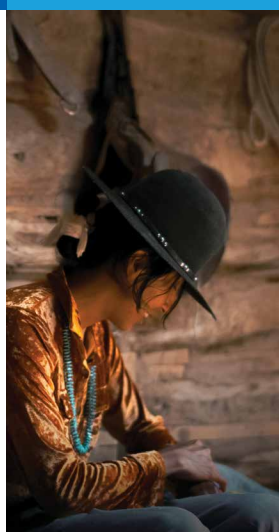

In the Scottish Highlands, a new kind of war is unfolding—one fought with policy instead of weapons. "The Last Keeper" follows gamekeepers, ghillies and deer stalkers whose families have worked the land for generations as modern political and cultural forces threaten their livelihoods, communities and the future of wildlife management.

The Real Wild West Fri. June 19 | 3pm

This series reveals the unknown history of the American West. Beyond gunslingers and lawmen, we meet the diverse pioneers who shaped the country, including Black and Hispanic cowboys, female homesteaders, immigrants and tribal leaders.

First Peoples, First Stories Mon. June 29 | 11:30pm

Follow emerging Native American storytellers as they share personal accounts of their lives, experiences and tribal communities. From learned Indigenous wisdom to a reconnection with traditional knowledge, the series' visionary and innovative storytelling provides insight into Native culture. The program features four unique short films.
