Miss Scarlet and The Duke, one of our top Masterpiece programs, returns for a fourth season. Headstrong Eliza Scarlet, the first-ever female detective in Victorian London. The series delivers the kind of historical fiction where a smart woman must work out how to survive and thrive in a time when she had few rights.

Nine PBS offers a brand-safe environment for your messages.

Announcements only air at the opening and closing of our interruption-free programs. Unlike commercial radio, TV, and cable, we air a fraction of the 16-plus minutes, on average (or 30+ commercials), of breaks they do, so your announcement is seen, heard, and noticed.

Local PROGRAMMING

Nine PBS's series and specials celebrate St. Louis region's strengths, accomplishments, and challenges. In 2023, Nine PBS received nine Mid-America Regional Emmy Award nominations and three wins for Living St. Louis (314 Day), Living St. Louis: Kids, Families, and Mental Health Special, and Drawn In: Brave Hero 2.

Donnybrook

On Donnybrook, five quick-witted, highly opinionated St. Louis journalists discuss tough topics. Donnybrook is also available as a podcast.

Teaching in Room 9

A reimagined season of Nine PBS's award-winning kids' program returned in September 2023 with a brandnew in-studio set, a permanent host, and field trips, offering preschoolers a classroom-like experience with some of the region's best teachers.

Living St. Louis

As it begins its 21st season in 2024, Living St. Louis continues to build community pride and provide a space for lifelong learning, showcasing the people, places, and things that make St. Louis unique. The flagship vehicle is a weekly, 30-minute show featuring prerecorded segments and in-studio interviews.
