

My Trip to Nine PBS

On Saturday, April 12, I will go to Nine PBS to play and listen to a story called We're Different, We're the Same and watch a clip of Carl the Collector.

I can bring a blanket or lovey or toy to make me feel most comfortable.

Storytime will be inside Bayer Studio on Olive Street. When I go to the entry, someone will check us in and help us find where to go for our story.

I will walk past Big Bird, and can take a picture with him. I will walk down the ramp, and turn right when I see the TV.

On my right, there is the Anheuser-Busch Community Room.

If I need to take a break or need a quiet area, I can go there with my caregiver at any time.

If I need help, I can talk to anyone in a Nine PBS shirt. They can help me!

When I enter the Bayer Studio, I can pick an area on the floor to sit down.

I can borrow a cushion or a fidget toy and return it when I am finished.

There will tables inside Bayer Studio and Studio B that I can explore. They will have information and activities.

I might see coloring pages, learning blocks, character cut outs, and other activities.

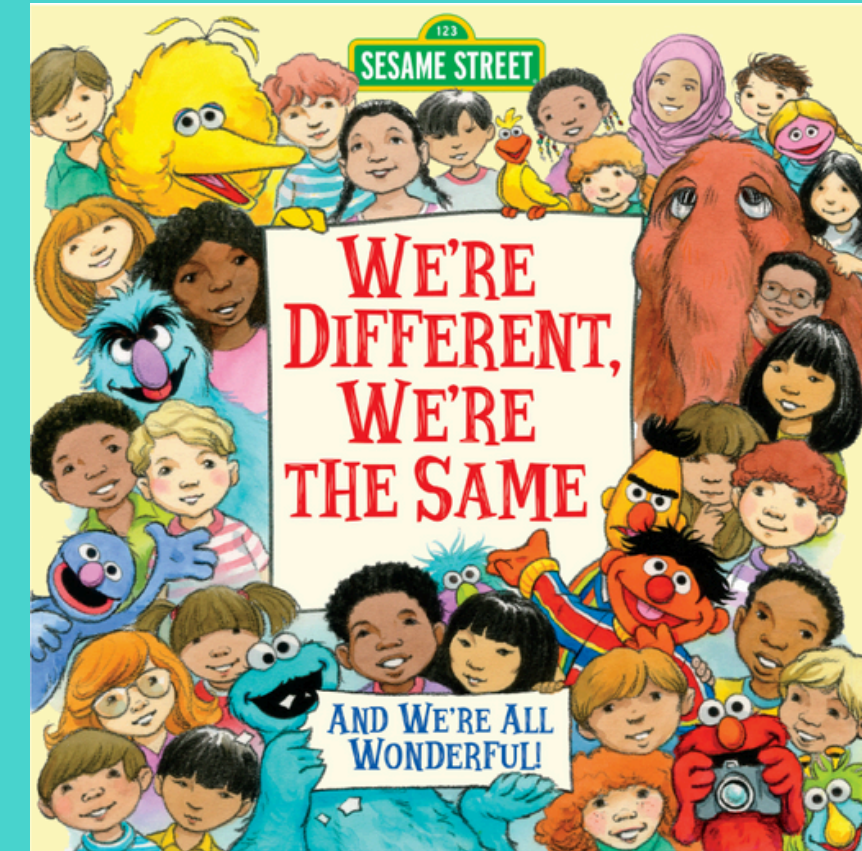

When I hear the 5 minute warning, I will find my seat and use my quiet voice.

I will hear from friends at Nine PBS and
the St. Louis Public Library

We will sing a song together, then read
We're Different, We're the Same.
It teaches us that everyone is the same on the inside and it's our differences that make this wonderful world an interesting and special place.

We will sing another song, and hear someone talk, then we will watch a 12-minute episode of Carl the Collector.

When my stories are over, I can keep exploring the tables until 11 am.

Then I will leave Nine PBS.
