Escape to Versailles

The period drama series Marie Antoinette, which chronicles the infamous historical figure's beginnings from a young dauphine to the last queen of France, launches on all PBS platforms in March.

The new eight-episode series follows a young Marie Antoinette as she learns the rules and secrets of the court and attempts to recreate Versailles in her image: free, independent, and feminist. But her successes provokes jealousy and rivalry, and her royal enemies will do everything they can to bring her down.

Marie Antoinette is just a teenager when she leaves Austria to marry the dauphin of France. When she arrives at Versailles, she must obey the numerous and complex rules of the French court. The princess quickly suffers from not being able to live her life the way she wants, while her mother, the empress of Austria, keeps pushing her to continue the Bourbon line and thus secure the alliance between the two countries.

The series delivers breathtaking costumes and set design that take viewers to the Palace of Versailles at the height of the "ancien régime."

However, faced with her husband's avoidant and solitary character, the mission turns out to be more complicated than expected. As defamatory pamphlets and persistent rumors about her private life undermine her status, her opponents within the royal family will do everything they can to bring her down.

Offering a rare glimpse into how the young princess turned into one of history's most iconic leaders, Marie Antoinette delivers breathtaking costumes and set design that take viewers to the Palace of Versailles at the height of the "ancien régime."

The series was created and written by Deborah Davis, who received accolades for her screen play for the 2018 film The Favourite. The film received 10 Academy Award nominations in 2019 and Olivia Colman won for the lead role of Queen Anne of England.

➤ Premieres Sunday, March 19, 9 pm, and will be available to stream on ninepbs.org, the PBS App, and on Nine PBS Passport.

Episode Rundown

One: The Slap

Marie Antoinette is just a teenager when she's forced to leave Austria to marry the dauphin. She must produce a Bourbon heir to secure the alliance between France and Austria. But she's as unprepared for her job as her awkward teenage husband. How will this free spirit react to Versailles with its ridiculous rules of etiquette?

Two: Rival Queens

When Louis refuses to share his bed with her, Marie Antoinette realizes that producing an heir will not be straightforward. She turns to Madame du Barry for support. But the favorite begins to see the dauphine as a rival for the king's affections. There can't be two queens at Versailles, and du Barry isn't about to disappear.

Three: Pick a Princess

The royal family goes on holiday at Fontainebleau to escape stifling Versailles. Marie Antoinette discovers du Barry's plan to welcome Provence's betrothed. Will the spare to the French throne deliver a son before she and Louis perform their duty? Marie Antoinette's escalating hostilities with du Barry threaten her relationship with the king.

Four: Queen of France

Marie Antoinette and Louis are about to make their first official visit to Paris. But when the king becomes seriously ill, the succession suddenly becomes a reality.

Five: Rebel Queen

Louis may now be king, but Marie Antoinette is determined to launch her reign as the queen of France. First steps: organize a glittering Inauguration Ball and convince Louis to choose her pro-Austrian candidate as his new prime minister. But their marriage hits the rocks when Louis isn't prepared to let his Austrian wife dabble in French politics.

Six: Deus Ex Machina

Surprisingly, the person who comes to Versailles to save the royal marriage is Marie Antoinette's brother, Joseph, who realizes he will have his work cut out if he's going to unite this estranged couple. Time is running out to save the Franco-Austrian alliance.

Seven: The Ostrich Bitch

Marie Antoinette is pregnant at last! But her reputation is attacked when pornographic pamphlets challenging the legitimacy of her unborn child appear at Versailles. Louis locks down the château and demands a full-blown investigation to nail the seditious traitors.

Eight: Queen of Hearts

Louis becomes increasingly confident in his position as king as he throws himself into supporting the American War of Independence. Meanwhile, Marie Antoinette embraces life at the Petit Trianon where she becomes enamored by a familiar face—Count Axel von Fersen.

Raising Awareness about Climate Change

Nova: Chasing Carbon Zero takes a hard look at the problem of climate change and what it would take to slash emissions in half by 2030.

In January PBS announced the launch of an unprecedented environmental and climate programming initiative that explores impacts on the country and planet. The comprehensive effort marks a bold commitment to bring together the very best in science, history, and news programming in 2023 and beyond.

Nine PBS is committed to airing thought-provoking programs, documentaries, and specials designed to elevate the conversation around climate change and sustainability. Watch these new programs live or stream anytime.

Bright by Text

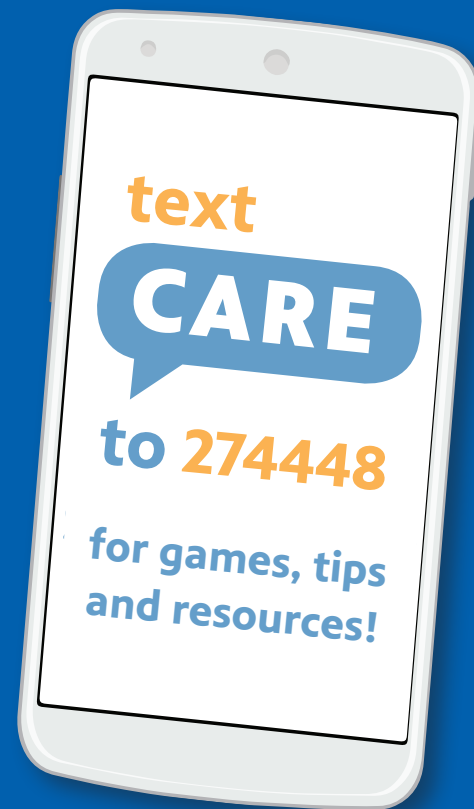

A free text-based service for all!

Caring for a child or teen?

Bright by Text is for anyone who cares for and loves a child, prenatally through age 18: parents, parents-to-be, grandparents, babysitters, aunts, uncles, neighbors, friends, teachers, and others.

Bright by Text can help!

We send free text messages with easy, practical tips and activities right to your cell phone. Our content comes from trusted partners like PBS and Sesame Workshop. Messages are targeted to your child's age and include information on development, language and early literacy, health and safety, behavioral tips, and more.

Intentional Curriculum: Drawn In

Nine PBS's new Drawn In initiative has created space in the region for children to embrace the comic book medium through animated shorts, comics, and Power Hour sessions. These locally created sessions engage young learners to become authors of their own comic books.

Drawn In is a series of epic adventure stories set in a bustling Midwestern city. It follows the exploits of four kids who unabashedly love comic books: Tyler Agbani, Nevaeh Campbell, Jady Harris, and Yeong-Ja "Grace" Park. In every adventure, their real worlds collide with the comic world. Colorful heroes, villains, robots, and other fanciful creatures escape from the comic book pages. The kids use problem-solving and literacy skills to set their world right again from cartoon mayhem!

Lady M is the comic shop owner who uses Magnificent Words to help the kids learn everyday vocabulary. These key vocabulary words were intentionally chosen because they are used in questions that require students to think at a higher level. The words show up on many different types of learning assessments, both standardized and informal. Children who practice these words in their everyday lives are more likely to understand questions and the text on a deeper level.

In addition to Lady M's Magnificent Words, Drawn In curriculum is focused on best practices and varied learning styles to create lessons that meet the needs of all children.

➔ Drawn In resources are available at drawnin.org so families can incorporate lessons into everyday life.

2022 in Review

The Impact Team had a lot to celebrate. Read the full 2022 Early Learning Impact report at ninepbs.org/reports.

- We hosted two Edcamps, with 209 educators in attendance, impacting at least 3,100 early learners.
- We returned to the Jack Galmiche Public Media Commons for two gatherings of Storytime in the Commons with more than 1,050 community members in attendance.
- We hosted 98 Power Hour sessions in our priority neighborhoods of North St. Louis, North St. Louis County, and East St. Louis. Power Hours have impacted 275-plus kids and 70 caregivers in these neighborhoods.
- Eighty-six percent of parents/caregivers agreed they learned something about their children through Power Hours.
- We welcomed the second cohort of Raymond H. Wittcoff Fellows to Nine PBS to create deeper relationships with educators, caregivers, and community organizations in high-need neighborhoods.

Joni Mitchell: The Library of Congress Gershwin Prize for Popular Song 2023

An icon among music makers, Mitchell redefined the role of women musicians. She oversaw all aspects of her albums, including songwriting, arrangements, performance, production, and artwork. After getting her start performing in her native Canada, she would go on to set a new standard, marrying music and lyrics, with such songs as "Both Sides, Now," "Chelsea Morning," and "Big Yellow Taxi."

The Greatest Story Ever Told

From his birth in Bethlehem to his death and eventual resurrection, the life of Jesus Christ (Max von Sydow) is given the all-star treatment in this epic 1965 retelling. Major aspects of Christ's life are touched upon, including the execution of all the newborn males, Christ's baptism, and the betrayal by Judas after the Last Supper.

The U.S. and the Holocaust: Insight and Understanding

This program offers a deeper understanding of the three-part PBS documentary that explores America's response to one of the greatest atrocities of the 20th century. Featuring exclusive insights from filmmakers Ken Burns, Lynn Novick, and Sarah Botstein, we learn how the creative team made decisions about who to interview and what to include to shape this landmark film. This special presentation also features select clips from the series

Independent Lens: Free Chul Soo Lee

Sentenced to life for a 1973 San Francisco murder, Korean immigrant Chul Soo Lee was set free after a pan-Asian solidarity movement, which included Korean, Japanese, and Chinese Americans, helped to overturn his conviction. The film was a Grand Jury Prize nominee at the 2022 Sundance Film Festival.
