Routine mammogram – No family history

Breast cancer screening

For My Kids

You're more important than you know.

You touch lives. You give smiles. You are someone's favorite person. Your health matters.

Jennifer, a single mom of two, prioritizes her health so she never misses a milestone in her kids' lives. Her children are the center of her world.

After a health scare, Jennifer makes a point to stay on top of her annual mammograms. She no longer takes her health for granted and continues to live a healthy, active life with her kids.

Four out of 10 adults will develop cancer in their lifetime, but screening tests can catch cancer early and help save lives. Give yourself and those who love you peace of mind, schedule a routine cancer screening and take control of your health today.

To see Jennifer's story and to learn which cancer screenings might be right for you and to schedule an appointment, visit getscreenednow.com or call 314-310-7574.

Dear Friends,

September 20 marks our 70th birthday at Nine PBS, and we'll celebrate the milestone with a year of connection and community. This station was built by and for St. Louis, with the goal to make the region better and brighter for all. Our work today continues as our founders intended, and we approach this 70th year with a bold look toward the future. We have a lot of excitement planned, all in celebration of our essential role in moving the region forward.

With a seasonal rebloom and Earth Day just around the corner, we remain committed to bringing you environmental and climate programming. Series like Nature, Nova, Human Footprint, Changing Plant, Living St. Louis, and others have shown us how we can contribute to solutions for building a better future for everyone. PBS has been part of this important conversation for decades.

March is Women's History Month. Be inspired by programs celebrating women thinkers, scientists, artists, and others who have had an outsized influence on our world.

Remember, you can watch Nine PBS programming anywhere, anytime. Find our programs on broadcast, streaming on the PBS and PBS KIDS Apps, Nine PBS Passport, YouTube TV, Hulu + Live TV, Local Now, DirecTV Stream, and Prime Video. There are thousands of programs produced with rigor and reason to pique your interest: global stories, awe-inspiring science and nature, and comedies and dramas that wrap you in comfort and joy.

Thank you for spending time with us.

Best,

Amy Shaw
President and CEO

Nine PBS volunteers gathered on November 17 for our annual volunteer appreciation event, where three volunteers received the Champion Award for their exemplary service. From left, Brittany Farmer, volunteer and stewardship manager, volunteers Cindy La, Barb Anderson, Janelle Carron, and Amy Shaw, president and CEO.

Board members Mary Nelson (left) and Pamela Morris-Thornton (right) attended the holiday-themed screening of the fourth season of All Creatures Great and Small on Masterpiece in December.

Our screening and panel discussion of Henry Gates Jr.'s Gospel on February 5 included a special Community Gospel Choir of St. Louis performance.

Frontline Nominated for an Academy Award

The PBS documentary series Frontline and The Associated Press were honored with an Academy Award® nomination in the Documentary Feature Film category. Frontline is produced at GBH in Boston.

A powerful, first-person view of the beginning of Russia's full-scale invasion of Ukraine, 20 Days in Mariupol is told through the perspective of Ukrainian filmmaker and AP video journalist Mstyslav Chernov.

Described as “essential” and “a relentless and truly important documentary” by The New York Times and “a brave, visceral, merciless masterpiece” by The Guardian, the film follows Chernov and his AP colleagues as they become the last international journalists reporting from Mariupol amid Russian troops' siege. Together, the journalists, who would go on to win a 2023 Pulitzer Prize, documented what would become indelible images of the war: dying children, mass graves, the bombing of a maternity hospital, and more.

📌 Following a decorated run on the film festival circuit, 20 Days in Mariupol had its U.S. broadcast premiere on Nine PBS in November 2023 and is now available to stream on the PBS App, on ninepbs.org, and on the PBS Documentaries Amazon Prime channel.

Wiese Inducted into Broadcasters' Hall of Fame

Donnybrook panelist Wendy Wiese will be inducted into the Missouri Broadcasters Association Hall of Fame in May 2024. Wendy was recognized for 35 years as a St. Louis broadcaster at KMOX, KTRS, and Nine PBS.

Webster Students Gain TV Production Experience on Teaching in Room 9

Nine PBS is partnering with Webster University to produce Season 9 of Teaching in Room 9. The award-winning series ensures that 3- to 5-year-olds are prepared for the classroom. Nine PBS and Webster's School of Communications developed a 16-week evening class, giving senior-level students real-world production opportunities in shooting, editing, and creating graphics for the show. Partnerships like this ensure that we're building a pipeline of future public media professionals and providing high-quality, real-world educational opportunities to students.

Nine PBS Collaborates with 4 Hands Brewing Co. on 70th Anniversary Beer

Be on the lookout for our social media poll to help us select our 70th-anniversary beer profile. The winning beer profile will be announced in April, and we will seek your help in May with a poll to select the final name. 4 Hands will design the label and brew the beer, which will be available to sample at its three locations.

Fannie Lou Hamer's America: America ReFramed Special

Explore and celebrate the life of a Mississippi sharecropper turned human-rights activist and one of the Civil Rights Movement's greatest leaders. Through the layering of audio recordings and archival video footage of her powerful speeches, soul-stirring songs, and impassioned pleas for equal rights, Fannie Lou Hamer tells her extraordinary story in her own words.

Hotel Portofino

The daughter of a wealthy industrialist moves to Italy in the 1920s to set up a quintessentially British hotel in the beautiful town of Portofino as Benito Mussolini's brand of fascism is on the rise.

The Paris Murders

Intuitive profiler Chloe Saint-Laurent solves the most puzzling cases with the Paris homicide division in this suspenseful and fast-paced series based on actual criminal cases. Her exceptional sensitivity enables her to read the minds of killers and victims alike.

Doc Martin

On March 1, Seasons 6 and 7 are available on Nine PBS Passport for the first time. Season 6 has Portwenn buzzing with arrangements for Martin and Louisa's wedding. In Season 7, Martin is heartbroken after Louisa's departure and is ready to change and win his family back.

Menus-Plaisirs—Les Troisgros

Legendary long-form filmmaker Frederick Wiseman is back with his 44th feature film, guaranteed to please fans of documentaries, food, family sagas, and travel. Set against a backdrop of lush rolling hills, the film follows the Troisgros family in central France and their three restaurants, founded 93 years ago and holding three Michelin stars for over 55 years.

All the Drama (with Some Laughs, Too)

Masterpiece has been essential Sunday night viewing for millions of fans since 1971.

On March 17, two more series, with strong female lead characters, are added to the canon.

A Portrait of a Forgotten Icon

Academy Award®-nominated Helena Bonham Carter stars in the period drama, Nolly, set in the 1960s and 70s. The miniseries shares a surprising slice of British TV history and celebrates a legendary and dazzling soap opera star. Noele “Nolly” Gordon’s unceremonious firing from her hit show at the height of her career was front-page news.

The Guardian (UK) calls Bonham Carter’s performance “brilliantly camp” and the series itself “impeccably put together.”

It’s a bold exploration of how the establishment turns on women who refuse to play by the rules, Nolly is an outrageously fun and wildly entertaining ride through Gordon’s most tumultuous years. The three-episode series is a sharp, affectionate, and heartbreaking portrait of a forgotten icon. Nolly was written by Russell T. Davies (Doctor Who, It’s a Sin).

🔗 Watch live Sundays, beginning March 17, 8 pm.
Stream all three episodes of this series starting on the night of its broadcast premiere with Nine PBS Passport. Not a member? Gain access at ninepbs.org/join.

Cinematic Series Screens at Film Fest

Alice & Jack comes from award-winning writer Victor Levin (Mad Men, Mad About You), and stars Academy Award®-nominated actor and producer Andrea Riseborough (To Leslie, Birdman) alongside actor, director, and screenwriter Domhnall Gleeson (Brooklyn, The Revenant).

Created and written by Levin, the six-episode series is a love story for the ages. When Alice (Riseborough) and Jack (Gleeson) first meet, they are bound by a powerful connection that seems nothing can break, but will their path lead them to a place of happiness and togetherness? Or will life and their emotional complexities get in the way? Honest, intimate, and surprisingly funny, the series shows love in all its unexpected, technicolor, kaleidoscopic beauty.

Alice & Jack had its premiere screening in September 2023 at the Toronto International Film Festival.

🔗 Watch live Sundays, beginning March 17, 9 pm.
Stream all six episodes of this series starting on the night of its broadcast premiere with Nine PBS Passport. Not a member? Gain access at ninepbs.org/join.

Wittcoff Fellows Represent Founder's Philosophy

The Raymond H. Wittcoff Community Engagement Fellowship, created in January 2021, carries on the legacy of one of the station's founding members, Raymond H. Wittcoff, real estate developer and philanthropist.

Ray Wittcoff is significant in the history of St. Louis's development, regional education, and local and national public media. He served as the chair of the National Educational Television Network (NET), a precursor to PBS.

In his roles as chair of NET and founder of Nine PBS, Wittcoff pursued a reality where all people are “as wise as they are powerful,” believing that public media’s sole responsibility is to “deal fully and forthrightly with the important problems that face our communities, the nation, and the world.” His dedication inspires Nine PBS’s initiatives, events, and content, including the Wittcoff Fellowship.

As the fellowship enters the fourth year, we can begin to see the long-term impact that this work is having on our region. During their time with Nine PBS, fellows strengthen Nine PBS partnerships so that we can continue to deepen our impact on early learners.

The Early Learning Initiative is supported by Bank of America–St. Louis, Berges Family Foundation, BJC HealthCare, Boeing, Cigna Group Foundation, Corporation for Public Broadcasting, Dana Brown Charitable Trust, Emerson Charitable Trust, Employee Community Fund of Boeing, Fred Rogers Productions, Joseph and Sandra Lehrer, in memory of Ted Koplar, Norman J. Stupp Foundation, PBS KIDS Ready to Learn, Pershing Charitable Trust, PNC Grow Up Great, Raymond H. Wittcoff, Regional Arts Commission, Steward Family Foundation, U.S. Department of Education, and YouthBridge Community Foundation.

After completing the fellowships, these former Wittcoff Fellows continue to help community members become “as wise as they are powerful.”

Meghan Steineker, 2021 cohort, is now the volunteer and community engagement coordinator at Rung for Women, helping women upskill and reskill into careers that offer economic empowerment.

---

Paula-Breonne Vickers, 2021 cohort, is now the director of early childhood power building at WEPOWER, working toward just and equitable systems around education, economics, and justice.

---

Terek Hawkins, 2022 cohort, is now a senior program manager at IFF, formerly Illinois Facilities Fund, supporting nonprofits through community-centered development and real estate consulting.

American Masters: Moynihan

Daniel Patrick Moynihan was the quintessential American poet-politician. He infused public policy with a language, literature, and lyricism that no American public figure in the latter half of the 20th century could match. The film takes a personal look at a public man who was not only an intellectual but also an aesthete who was deeply committed to making an inimitable impact on the world.

A Brief History of the Future

The six-part series weaves together history, science, and unexpected storytelling to expand our understanding about the impact that the choices we make today will have on our tomorrows. Each episode follows those who are working to solve our greatest challenges. The series also features valuable insights from a wide range of thinkers, including French President Emmanuel Macron, U.S. Secretary of Transportation Pete Buttigieg, and U.S. Surgeon General Vivek Murthy, among others.

314 DAY SPECIAL

Thursday, March 14
7:30 pm

Don't miss our 314 Day Special, a celebration of our city and region.

(Last year's special won a regional Emmy award in the magazine program category!)

It's also the kickoff to a yearlong, community-wide celebration on air and on our social media channels of our 70th birthday.

STORIES ON TAP:

The origins of 314 Day

Hometown celebrities

Iconic places (that aren't The Arch)

A brief 70-year history of our founding
