Team Member Spotlight

Lauren Tucker Huber

Donor Relations Manager

How long have you worked at Nine PBS?

I will celebrate 15 years in August.

Briefly, what is your responsibility?

I work to secure financial support for Nine PBS by encouraging our Torchlight Society donors ($1,000-plus annually) to invest and make a greater impact in the region through Nine PBS.

What show(s) on Nine PBS are you watching or recommending?

I'm a big fan of the PBS NewsHour and appreciate the perspective on local issues shared on Donnybrook and Living St. Louis. My family graduated from Wild Kratts to Nature and Nova.

What do you enjoy doing when you're not at work?

I love watching my kids do their thing, from sports to band concerts and scouts, and snuggle and hanging-out time. I enjoy hiking and dining with my husband and visiting family and friends.

Our Community

- 1 Nine PBS partnered with St. Louis Public Radio, Trailnet, and Metro Transit for Bike to Work Day on May 19 to offer a commuter stop in the Public Media Commons, where bikers enjoyed coffee, pastries, and more.
- 2 Trash or Treasure returned on May 6 in Nine PBS's Bayer Studio for a chance for members to find out about their vintage books, artwork, jewelry, coins, and more, from partner Kodner Gallery.
- 3 Nine PBS, in partnership with WNET and Bank of America St. Louis, organized a field trip to the St. Louis Kaplan Feldman Holocaust Museum for Mehlville High School and Grand Center Arts Academy students on April 18.

Dear Friends,

The kids are not alright. This sentiment has been echoed by parents, educators, and community partners. In response, Nine PBS is launching a Mental Well-Being Initiative. Our approach will use all our platforms—on-air, online, and in the community—to increase awareness and understanding about mental health for youth, from infancy to eight years old, as well as parents, caregivers, and educators. All age groups are essential to ensuring that our kids are happy and well. See page 5 for more on this initiative.

Our home in Grand Center is an important asset and essential to our work to engage our community. We bring our region together for shared experiences, ranging from large-scale performances, celebrations, literacy conferences, and screenings to smaller gatherings with public television personalities and community partners.

An example of this is the learning experience we convened this spring for educators to connect to PBS KIDS media and promote early learning. Nearly 800 children in the St. Louis region will be positively impacted by the educators who participated in Edcamp.

And speaking of assets, we're so fortunate to own our parking lot. The next time you're here, you'll see our new look and a safer and more secure lot that ensures an improved visitor experience. The 5,800-square-foot lot is now fully secured, has 100 unrestricted parking spaces, seven ADA-compliant parking spaces and exit/extrance ramp, four electric vehicle parking/charging spaces, improved drainage, and security cameras. Gone are the rickety stairs and in their place you will find a durable ramp and stairs.

Thanks to each of you (including those who supported us on Give STL Day). Enjoy the summer and I can't wait to see you at one of our upcoming events listed at ninepbs.org/events.

Countdown to the Series Finale

Doc Martin, a British comedy-drama set in a sleepy Cornish town, returns to Nine PBS for a ninth season beginning August 17, 8 pm.

The last time we saw new episodes of Doc Martin was way back in 2019, when Season 8 aired on Nine PBS.

Martin Clunes stars as the surly, self-centered, formerly hotshot surgeon in London, Dr. Martin Ellingham. The series centers around Martin, who after developing a fear of blood, is forced to change careers and relocate to the charming town of Portwenn, where he clashes with the village's quirky inhabitants.

In Season 9, Martin's medical career hangs in the balance as the General Medical Council (GMC) assesses his ability and determines whether he is fit to continue practicing medicine. All regular members of the cast will be reprising their roles. Season guest stars include Danny Huston (Succession) and James Lance (Ted Lasso).

There are so many reasons to love Doc Martin. The series is known for its beautiful production value, including its picturesque, seaside scenery. Martin might be socially awkward and not the most pleasant person in Portwenn, but he's honest and tells it like it is for your own good. And the series strives for a dose of medical accuracy.

To bring everyone back up to speed, a Season 8 encore will be broadcast July 13, 8 pm. The final season (10) will air at a later date.

▶ Seasons 8 and 9 will be available for streaming with Nine PBS Passport beginning July 1. Members can activate their Passport account at ninepbs.org/activate.

Episode Rundown

One: To the Lighthouse

Martin's medical career remains under scrutiny as a GMC representative has come to assess him and his surgery. Meanwhile, Al accidentally proposes to Morwenna, and Mrs. Tishell has a new lease on life.

Two: The Shock of the New

Martin's GMC report has arrived. He's required to pass three refresher courses which will decide whether he is deemed fit to practice.

Three: S.W.A.L.K.

Ruth is concerned about becoming increasingly forgetful and is even more perturbed when Martin offers to perform a mini mental state examination. Meanwhile, Louisa plans Martin's birthday celebration.

Four: Paint It Black

Martin has his second GMC assessment (mock surgery) and Buddy is missing. Meanwhile, Ken's arrival does not bring good news for Al and Bert, and Penhale is unhappy with his predecessor's arrival.

Five: Wild West Country

Martin investigates a shooting on a farm over stolen eggs. Emily returns to the surgery to see Martin after medication causes a bad reaction, and a secret bidder buys the Crab and Lobster pub.

Six: Equilibrium

Martin and Louisa have their first fertility consultation. Aware that Martin can perform the tests himself, she reminds him that he is the patient now, not the doctor.

Seven: Single White Bevy

A local vet consults with Doc Martin about a lump in her breast. The episode features the return of former nanny Janice Bone.

Eight: License to Practice

Wedding bells are ringing in Portwenn with preparations for Morwenna and Al's wedding. But some last-minute hitches threaten to jeopardize their big day.

Mental Well-Being Initiative

Nine PBS anchors our work in what is most important to the community. We regularly convene our trusted community partners through our Model for Community Engagement. This model ensures that community engagement has real meaning: conversation, collaboration, and outcomes. The partner meetings and community conversations facilitated by our community engagement model make Nine PBS a better community member and a relevant institution in the daily lives of people across our region.

Over the last two years, Nine PBS has consistently received requests from partners, caregivers, educators, and school districts to support children's mental health by focusing on trauma-informed content and resources and social-emotional skill building, especially to address the aftermath of the COVID-19 pandemic. Mental health data in our region reinforces the importance of our partners' requests.

Missouri ranks 40th in access to mental health care.
(MHA, 2022)

In 2021, 68,000 Missourians aged 12-17 had depression—more than half did not receive care.
(NAMI, 2022)

Mental health disproportionately affects Black, Indigenous, and People of Color (BIPOC), those living in poverty, and those with disabilities.
(NAMI, 2022)

To respond to this need, Nine PBS's Mental Well-Being Initiative is a multigenerational, multiplatform approach to reaching youth, from infancy to eight years old, and their parents, caregivers, and educators to increase awareness and understanding of mental well-being.

Key steps include:

- Listening sessions with community partners to learn what the community needs, what community resources are currently offered, and what role Nine PBS can play in the communal work toward mental health support.
- Creating content that amplifies diverse and underrepresented voices to magnify and deepen understanding of mental health and the regional community resources available for support.
- Collaborating on community events to engage people on the ground in the communities in which they live and work.

Nine PBS's Mental Well-Being Initiative is supported by the Cigna Foundation's Healthier Kids for Our Future grant in partnership with Behavior Health Response.

Celebrating 40 Years of Frontline

For 40 years, Frontline has been one of the most celebrated long-form news and current affairs series, educating and informing the American public. We're grateful to Frontline for its unwavering commitment to investigative journalism and public service. Over 300 Frontline documentaries are available to stream in the PBS App.

Fun Facts

- Frontline's first investigation was The Unauthorized History of the NFL, which aired on January 17, 1983.
- Frontline's most-streamed documentary of all time is Amazon Empire: The Rise and Reign of Jeff Bezos, with over 22 million views.
- To date, Frontline has been honored with 31 Peabody Awards, including in 2023 for Michael Flynn's Holy War and Ukraine: Life Under Russia's Attack, and 104 Emmys.
- Frontline has earned two Academy Award nominations: in 2018 for Abacus: Small Enough to Jail and in 2020 for For Sama.

At the PBS Annual Meeting in May, Alejandra Ramos, host of The Great American Recipe, signs the cover of the May/June issue of Nine PBS Magazine, on which she and the show's judges appear, on the back of judge Graham Elliot.

Channel 9.3 and Spectrum 185

July themes and priority films are focused on democracy and mental health.

Local, USA: Firsthand: Gun Violence

The number of victims of Chicago's gun violence may fluctuate, but the psychological trauma in many neighborhoods is constant. How do wounded communities heal? This film explores the personal, firsthand perspectives of people whose lives have been affected by gun violence in Chicago.

Monday, July 10, 8 pm

Local, USA: Power of a Pardon

For five formerly incarcerated individuals who served their time, the only path to redemption and a chance to pursue their life's purpose is through the Pennsylvania Board of Pardons. Through intimate and, at times, nerve-racking stories, the film shows how life-altering a pardon and criminal justice reform can be when trying to build a life after prison.

Monday, July 3, 8 pm

DON'T MISS

In Crossings, a group of international women peacemakers sets out on a risky journey across the demilitarized zone between North and South Korea, calling for an end to a 70-year war that has divided the Korean peninsula.

Agnes 50: Life after the Flood

On Friday, June 23, 1972, Pennsylvania suffered the wrath of Hurricane Agnes, which at the time was the costliest hurricane to hit the U.S. and would claim the lives of 128 people in the storm's path. Now, at the 50th anniversary, this documentary explores what was learned from the Agnes tragedy.
