

Written & Illustrated

by Hazel
Rockstad

Once upon a time there was a girl named Hazel. She was home all day because it was a snow day. Hazel decides it was the perfect day to go play outside! While she was looking for her snow pants Hazel found a trunk she had never seen before. In the trunk she found a snow globe she had never seen before. She picked it up and gave it a good shake. To her surprise, the entire house was covered in snow. She found her mom shoveling a path from the kitchen to the entry. Her mom asks her "what is in your hand?"

Hazel holds up the snow globe, shakes it, and tells her mom "WATCH THIS!!!"

Her mom yells at the top of her lungs "NOOOOOO! I just SHOVELLED!!" "Where did you find that snow globe?" Hazel replied "I found it in the attic in a trunk"

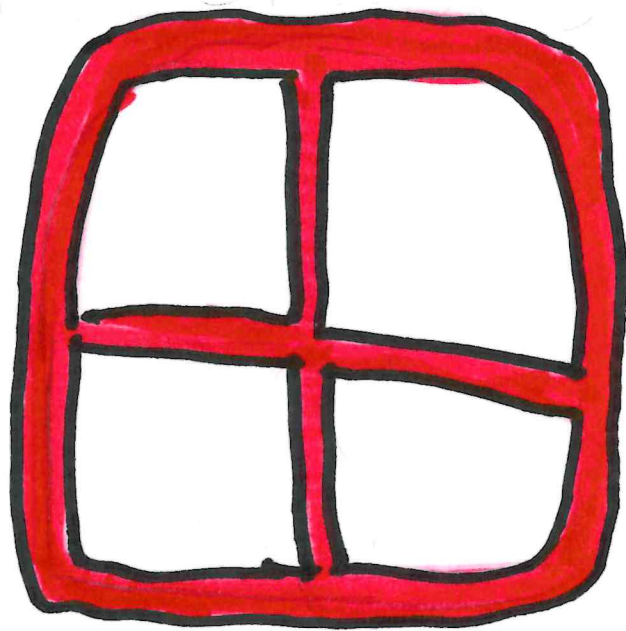

Her mom went on to tell her your great, great, great, great, great grandma received it from her husband, Santa Clause. In Shock, Hazel asks "It's a magic snow globe?" After the shock of being related to the Clauses she decides the safest spot is back in the attic. But, when she turns around she sees Steiger, (2)

the dog was chewing on the snow globe. All Hazel and her mom could do was watch the snow fill the kitchen. When Steiger FINALLY got done chewing Hazel grabbed the slobbery snow globe. Once Hazel got done rinsing the slobbery snow globe. She and her mom finished shoveling out the house both she and her mom decided it's best to send it back to the North Pole.

The End

P.S. this book was written on a real life snow day (3)

The Clauses

Warning do not shake

