One sunny afternoon, Hello Kitty decided to go to the playground with her friends, Joey and Leo. She walked over to her favorite swing, a beautiful pink one that sparkled.

“Time for some fun!” she laughed, pushing herself off the ground with her feet. “Wee!” Hello Kitty giggled as she went up and down, higher and higher.

Hello Kitty got so high that she started to swing too high! She went way up, up, up, and then...she got stuck! "Help! Help!" Hello Kitty shouted. "I'm stuck! I'm too high!"

Joey and Leo heard Hello Kitty and ran over to help. They carefully pushed the swing to slow it down. "Yay! I'm free!" Hello Kitty cheered, jumping off the swing and giving Joey and Leo a big hug.

Hello Kitty looked at Leo and Joey and said, "next time, I think I'll swing a little lower!" They all laughed and ran to the slide to play together. And they all had the best time ever at the playground!
