

Happy Leads
GYMNASIS + KS

By: AV brax

Aubrey loved practicing gymnastics in her backyard. She did cartwheels handstands and flips.

One day Flappy the
flamingo flew by and saw her. Flappy wanted to do that too.

She watched and watched and watched. When she got home she practiced but fell every time.

She was sad but did not give up. She flew to Aubrey's house so she could teach her.

They practiced all day
and all night until Flappy was the best.

Flappy was so excited
she could do gymnastics!
She flew home to show
all her friends.

She then decided to teach her friends too.
