

PROFILE | Patrick Keegan

Executive Producer
Content Division

Mr. Keegan joined Maryland Public Television as an executive producer in June 2022. He currently oversees MPT's lifestyle programming, including Chesapeake Collectibles, Destination Maryland, and Made In Maryland.

Mr. Keegan began his career as a production coordinator for Discovery Health's The Critical Hour: Shock Trauma, shooting, producing, and editing segments. He then joined Warner Bros. Discovery as a development manager. In this capacity, he was responsible for managing the Animal Planet's natural history content, its relationship with the BBC, and aiding the development of programs such as Meerkat Manor, Mermaids: The Body Found, and Ocean's Deadliest – Steve Irwin's final project. He later transitioned to a production position and served as a producer on numerous hit series, including Whale Wars, River Monsters, Pit Bulls and Parolees, Too Cute, and The Zoo. Mr. Keegan helped create and ultimately oversaw Monster Week, Animal Planet's annual programming block.

As supervising producer, Mr. Keegan was responsible for overseeing the production of various projects for Animal Planet and Discovery Channel, including North Woods Law, Fish or Die, Fear Island, Little Giants, and several Shark Week specials.

Following his tenure with Animal Planet, Mr. Keegan joined ID, Discovery's true-crime network. There, he was tasked with overseeing in-house productions, developing and producing content utilizing Discovery's extensive library of programming.

Originally from South Africa, Mr. Keegan relocated to the United States and attended Stevenson University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in film and video production.

He currently resides in Frederick with his wife and two cats.

MARYLAND
PUBLIC
TELEVISION

02-01-2023