Events like our Impact Early Childhood Education Summit are made possible through the support of members like you!

You Make PBS Possible

Friends like you ensure PBS North Carolina can give life to memorable storytelling, meaningful conversations and award-winning educational content as well as foster new and renewed connections that strengthen our communities.

On June 30, PBS North Carolina celebrated the end of its fiscal year. Thanks to the generosity of donors like you, we accomplished so many things together, including:

- 3,255 hours of local programs showcasing North Carolina's people, places and stories were produced.
- 72 community events, initiatives, trainings and presentations impacting over 127,664 people, including children, parents, caregivers and educators.
- More than 700 teachers participated in professional development sessions, potentially impacting more than 10,000 learners in their classrooms.

We're moving forward with an even more ambitious list of compelling stories and community experiences. Your support makes this work possible. Thank you!

WATCH!

Party Animal

Curious George inspires children to explore the world around them. And what better guide is there than the world's most curious monkey? Everything is worth investigating according to George. Of course, in George's hands, investigation often leads to hilarious consequences. Binge the show every weekend this month during Read-a-roo's Block Party, 7-10 AM and 1-4 PM on Rootle, or stream at pbskids.org/curiousgeorge.

Practice Perseverance

PLAY!

Here are some ways to help children practice perseverance during everyday challenges:

- Normalize mistakes.
- Figure out feelings together.
- Cheer on your child when they follow their passion.

Find more ideas at pbs.org/parents.

EXPLORE!

New Jobs, New Jams!

Enjoy new episodes of the music-inspired podcast Jamming on the Job. In July, meet a video game designer in Austin who encourages us to shake things up. Find the podcast on the PBS KIDS Video App or wherever you listen to your favorite podcasts.
