Dear Valued Members,

For 70 amazing years, you have been by our side. You've inspired us and cheered us on since our first telecast back in 1955. Together, we've welcomed Mister Rogers to our neighborhood, gotten our hands dirty with This Old House and gone on countless trips with NC Weekend. We've mastered the art of French cooking with Julia, found our roots with Henry Louis Gates Jr. and rummaged through every yard sale looking for the next big Antiques Roadshow discovery.

Because of you, PBS North Carolina has expanded beyond broadcast television to educate, inform, entertain and inspire all North Carolinians—at home, in the classroom or on the go. Your support has made all of this possible, and for that we're forever grateful.

So here's to you for 70 wonderful years! And stay tuned for new programs, educational opportunities and special events in the year to come.

With gratitude,

Your friends at PBS North Carolina

P.S. In 2024, we ended the year on a high note thanks to your support. On December 3, our Giving Tuesday Matching Challenge raised over $227,970 from 961 donors. Thank you to all our supporters!

A SPECIAL THANK YOU

Listening to Others

On the PBS KIDS podcast Jamming on the Job, a costume designer says he asks questions to learn an actor's thoughts on their character. These insights help boost his confidence. To help your child understand the benefits of hearing others' views, visit pbs.org/parents/thrive/talk-about-it-building-confidence-by-listening-to-others.
