Your Support Helps Fortify Our Future

In July, Congress passed a rescission bill eliminating previously approved federal funding for the Corporation for Public Broadcasting (CPB). For PBS North Carolina, this action translates into an annual loss of $4.8 million. That support has been instrumental to providing educational programming and critical emergency communications infrastructure throughout the state.

Thank you to everyone who continues to support our mission. PBS North Carolina began as WUNC-TV in 1955, 12 years before the establishment of CPB. Today, PBS North Carolina still belongs to the people of this state. Our commitment to you is unwavering.

While the loss of federal funding presents real challenges, remember PBS North Carolina is more than a television network—we're part of the fabric of this state.

PBS North Carolina is here because of you, and we exist to serve you, now and always.

Thanks for standing with us during this pivotal time. Your support sends a clear message: North Carolinians are committed to public media for generations to come.

With deep gratitude,

David Crabtree, CEO and General Manager

TAKE ACTION TODAY!

During this critical time, please continue to support our mission to serve all North Carolinians:

- Upgrade your sustaining gift
- Make an additional gift
