PLAN FOR THE FUTURE

At PBS North Carolina, we often talk about how we grow together with you, our viewers. Since our founding in 1955, PBS North Carolina has evolved by adapting our programming, services, facilities, equipment and staffing to meet the needs of our audience. As your public media station, we try to anticipate and prepare for changes on the horizon, and we encourage you to plan for your future with an estate plan.

PBS North Carolina is pleased to offer a courtesy webinar on the Basics of Estate Planning. Led by attorney Charlie Davis of the Raleigh law firm Poyner Spruill, the session will cover important documents that everyone should prepare and keep current, provide insights about wills and trusts and give tips on how to create a plan that protects your interests and the needs of your family.

Let's plan for the future as we continue to grow together.
