David Crabtree Named CEO of PBS North Carolina

Veteran broadcaster David Crabtree was recently appointed the CEO of PBS North Carolina. In this role, Crabtree is responsible for the leadership, direction and operation of the organization, which has a portfolio that includes in-person engagement, four over-the-air channels and a robust digital presence.

“I’m honored to serve in this role and remain committed to the success and service mission of this treasured public media network,” says Crabtree.

David Crabtree is well-known in North Carolina following a distinguished career as a broadcast journalist at WRAL. An anchor and reporter with three decades in the television news industry, he has received numerous accolades, including 16 Emmy Awards and the North Carolina Association of Broadcasters’ Distinguished Service Award.

Crabtree and his leadership team continue to navigate the rapidly changing media landscape with investments in multiplatform content distribution, including a redesigned pbsnc.org website and Explore NC, a new AR app geared toward young learners. In addition, PBS North Carolina continues to explore applications of NextGen TV technology in content and educational resource delivery. “The future of PBS North Carolina is exceedingly bright,” says Crabtree.

Thanks for Your Support!

The F. M. Kirby Foundation recently awarded a grant that enables PBS North Carolina to better support Latinx families with early education resources. Executive director Justin Kiczek says, “The foundation is proud to continue support of PBS North Carolina as it strives to strengthen and expand its connection with Hispanic families, increasing its outreach to inspire and educate the next generation.”

We’re grateful for our funders who make it possible for us to touch so many people. Make a year-end gift today by visiting pbsnc.org/donate.

New Season of Molly of Denali

Get ready to sled into fun! Join Molly of Denali, a feisty and resourceful Alaska Native girl, as she helps her parents run a trading post. There she assists tourists, trekkers and scientists, and sometimes rides along in her mom's bush plane or makes deliveries via dog-sled. Catch the new season starting Monday, November 7, at 2:30 PM, on Rootle.

SHARE!

Giving Thanks

Practicing gratitude can simply begin with "thank you." Help young learners develop a positive self-identity and awareness of others by practicing these tips:

Point out when someone does something nice for your child. "Your books are so heavy. I saw your sister help you carry them. What can you do to show her you appreciate her?"

Build gratefulness into your routines to create a habit of being thankful. At breakfast, dinner or bedtime, ask "What are we grateful for today?"

Call the Midwife

It's December 1967, and life in Poplar is returning to normal. The midwives have moved the maternity clinic into new premises, and Nurse Crane is caring for a pregnant woman recently released from prison. Meanwhile, Sister Frances attends a delivery in a garment factory, and Fred suggests a festive talent show. What else is in store for your favorite characters?
