Plant the Seed— Create an Estate Plan

Fewer than half of U.S. adults have an estate plan that establishes how their assets and estate should be handled after their death. Many of those without a plan intend to get one but haven't made it a priority yet. When it comes to creating your estate plan, PBS North Carolina wants you to be well informed and prepared.

This month, we're proud to promote National Estate Planning Awareness Week, October 17–23, through our Plant the Seed campaign. We encourage you to “plant the seed” for your legacy by creating or updating your estate plan. Congress established National Estate Planning Awareness Week in 2008 to assist the public in understanding the importance and benefits of estate planning.

Beverly and Kenneth of Greensboro, longtime supporters of PBS North Carolina, have acted on their estate plan, thanks in part to a little help from us. After using our free estate-planning guide, Planning Your Legacy, they're organized and ready to meet with their attorney. The guide was just what they needed to get their thoughts and documents organized. As part of their plan, they're leaving a bequest to PBS North Carolina. After all, Beverly happily reports, “We mostly watch PBS NC.” Thank you, Beverly and Kenneth!

PLAN YOUR LEGACY TODAY

As part of our Plant the Seed campaign, we're pleased to offer you our Planning Your Legacy guide. In it, you'll find many helpful tips and reminders, from tax savings to life insurance to distribution of personal property to remembering your pets. Request your free copy at pbsnc.org/planttheseed.

Introducing “Rosie’s Rules”

This month, get to know Rosie Fuentes, a Mexican American girl who is part of a blended, multicultural family in the new series Rosie’s Rules. Her dad is from Mexico City, and her mom is from rural Wisconsin. Rosie has a little brother, Iggy, and an older sister, Crystal, her mom’s child from her first marriage. Together they live in Texas with their cat, Gatita. Tune in Monday, October 3, 8:30 AM on Rootle and 10 AM on PBS NC, and meet the whole family.

A Man of Letters

"I carry the mountains with me wherever I go," says NC writer Fred Chappell. Filmmaker Michael Frierson pays tribute to the Appalachian scribe in his new documentary Fred Chappell: I Am One of You Forever. In it, writers share their admiration for the man considered to be one of our most important Southern writers.
