"The Mystical Magic of the Book"

by Stella

Westergard Elementary School

One day a girl named Kathran was walking home from the library and she saw a book on the sidewalk. "Wow!" said Kathran in disbelief. "I bet no one will mind if I take this book," she muttered to herself. So she took the book to her house and started to read the book.

One page after another that's when the book disappeared and there poor Kathran was now standing by what seemed to look like a lemonade lake, but there was a boat!

Kathran jumped in the boat and sailed till she could see land. That's when she noticed the land looked different. It was all colors of the rainbow! Different shades of pinks, greens, blues, and purple!

That's when Kathran saw a ballerina twirling all around. Kathran leaped out of her boat and said "Hi," but the ballerina did not reply. So off Kathran went back to the boat. Then she saw the magical book again. So she started to read again till "POOF!" Kathran now saw a castle that awaits so on she went.

There she saw a little girl in a red hood, and it was "Red Riding Hood!" So off they went to the castle. They saw "Cinderella" at the castle when suddenly the "Mouse King" rudely crashed the party! That's when the "Mouse King" said, "We fight! Here's a sword!" So Kathran bravely said, "Well fine to protect the Kingdom." So they fought till the "Mouse King" disappeared into the darkness.

Then the book appeared so Kathryn knew it was time to go so she said her goodbyes. So she grabbed the book and left. That's when she started to read - then BOOM!

She was back home. Books can bring the best adventures!
