WRITERS CONTEST

PRESENTED BY

FIRST GRADE: 1st Place "Rolant the Annihilator" by Noah

Lemelson STEM Academy

I knew a boy named Rolant, AKA, Rolant the Annihilator, a real hero. Rolant lived in Reno just like me. Rolant the hero could travel anywhere bullies were. Rolant could annihilate bullies anywhere in the world with his super duper water pack and hose.

In New York, Rolant heard a bully messing with Vivian. Rolant sprung into action. Rolant got out his super duper water pack and hosed the bully down. Immediately, the bully changed into a nice guy named Kaydent. The three of them played together until they all had to go home.

Back in Reno, Rolant the Annihilator thought his bully conquest adventures were over for the day but noooo!!!!

Rolant heard a bully messing with Sariah in California. Rolant sprung into action by hosing the bully down with his super duper water pack. The bully named Wreth apologized to Sariah, and they became friends.

Rolant was happy his adventures were over for the day. Rolant was going home to rest. Tomorrow he would begin another amazing day of bully annihilation adventures.

The End
