"My Adventure"

by Agnes

St. Teresa of Avila Catholic School

I am an adventurer of a panda. My name is Agnes. The panda's name is Jessica. We were friends. Her zoo cave had five suns.

I love my panda. Jessica loved me too. She decided to escape from her cave. Where do you think she went?

Yes! She was in my house. Jessica escaped to my room. She was jumping on my bed. I was in shock. I knew I had to get her back to her zoo cave, but first we would play.

We knew exactly what we were going to play: momma! This is my favorite game to play with my sister. Panda was happy and excited to play a sister game. Jessica had one cub and I had one baby. They were best friends just like Panda and I.

After we played for a long while, it was time to go. I promised to visit Jessica often. Now... to sneak back into the zoo. Panda showed me her secret passage. We hugged goodbye. Even though we were sad, we knew this was not our last adventure.
