1. Introduction

When I heard of the topic of Someday, I kept thinking of things to do someday and write about. Like riding my bike! Like visiting Blueyland someday! Like doing this CONTEST!

2. Firefighter

Then, I realized, I should write about what I want to be someday. The first thing ever was a firefighter. I want to be a firefighter because I can put out lots and lots of fires. I can also rescue people, and cats, and dogs!!!

3. Artist

Then I thought, "Wait, what about my art?" I'm an Artist, well kind of, I'm still practicing. I got into it because of my sister.

4. Writer

One thing I cannot forget is that I'm for sure going to be a writer, because I already am! I have already made a lot of books! I make comics about many things; like floppy underwear, raining plants, and joke books. I also wrote a book about my dog Jedi and I was one of the kids at my school who got to read to the parents and kids. It was called, "Meet the Authors." Someday, I'll write many more books.

5. Summary

It's decided. When I'm a firefighter and have my days off, I can write books and draw pictures in them. So, maybe I can do all three when I grow up, SOMEDAY!!!
