“A Broken Toilet” by Caisey

Coral Academy of Science Elementary

I threw a roll of toilet paper in the toilet.
It could not flush
Water was flooding the house
The water went upstairs.
A hippo came to our house and started swimming.
A crocodile came and hid under the table.
The crocodile bonked his head and swam away.
Then my brother called the special plumber.
The toilet got fixed
Now I got a hippo in my bed!
