“Lost Ball” by Enzo

JWood Raw Elementary School

There was a ball who had a great owner!! But then when Masin took the ball to school things were about to be sad! When Masin went to recess, he shot some baskets. But when Masin went inside, he forgot his ball. Then, the ball got locked outside. The ball checked out the place. Then the ball saw an open gate, so he went out. Then the ball went to the city. And then he thought about his old owner. So then he came up with a plan. So he tried to remember his house, but that didn't work so he came up with a new plan. His plan was to go to every house and see if he could find his owner. First, he checked 1000 houses. And finally, when he checked the last house he found his owner!!!
