Never have the words, "Yes sir," been so cutting as when I heard it from my sister. My authority within the family business had caused a rift in the family. Somewhere along the way, I'd stopped being a brother and became the CEO and chairman of the board instead. That's when Whit suggested that our annual charity golf tournament was the perfect opportunity to recapture some of the family magic of our childhood. A few laughs and a round of golf later, we'd reworked the business so Whit could handle decisions involving the family and I could focus on being a brother. Sometimes the big picture becomes clearer when you focus on the little things.
