PBS Is a Safe Haven for Families

When making the decision to cancel their cable TV subscription, member Tiffany Debnam was comforted that PBS NC and our Rootle 24/7 PBS KIDS Channel would still be available for her family. They rely on them for family-centered entertainment and diverse educational content.

“PBS is our family’s first choice,” says Tiffany. “I feel comfortable not having to monitor the screen when my kids want TV time. What’s most important to us are the insightful shows and specials. No other broadcast—live or streaming—provides that for us. I am always impressed by the broad range of topics the channel covers, even the hard topics. PBS North Carolina genuinely highlights diversity!”

YOUR SUPPORT HELPS KIDS THRIVE

Research shows children achieve measurable gains in learning when they engage with PBS’ award-winning kids’ content. You help us bring quality children’s programming to millions of homes and share community resources to all 100 counties. With your support, we aim to reach all children and families in North Carolina.

Families—including those without high-speed internet—rely on quality, age-appropriate content on our Rootle 24/7 PBS KIDS Channel. These programs help children develop critical-thinking skills and spark their imagination and curiosity of the world around them.

Thank you for helping kids thrive through education.

Animal Adventures

Read-a-roo's

BLOCK PARTY

In the animated series Wild Kratts, brothers Chris and Martin travel the world to meet animals and learn all about them and their habitats. Watch as they activate their creature power suits to rescue their animal friends.

Enjoy Wild Kratts every weekend this month during Read-a-roo's Block Party, 7–10 AM and 1–4 PM.

Back to School: Creating Daily Routines for Kids

Following a schedule each day makes children feel safer and happier, which often leads to better behavior and cooperation. When they know what to expect, and what's expected of them, kids feel more comfortable and confident about what lies ahead.

For more tips and activities, explore the back-to-school hub on the PBS KIDS for Parents website: pbs.org/parents/back-to-school

Sharkathon on September 8

There are about 73 species of shark that live or pass through North Carolina waters each year. Learn more about these ancient creatures during Sharkathon, an eight-hour block of programs—including a new shark-themed episode of Sci NC—that explore these fascinating and misunderstood animals.

Recognizing Special Friends
