

Once upon a time, there was a girl named Sadie. She was eight years old and she did not like

to

take

baths!

In fact, she hated them. She thought they were nasty and horrible, even with bath bombs. Even the soothing ones!

Sadie's parents said that if she took that nasty bath, she would get bubble gum!

But... there was a problem!

She

NEVER

EVER

had bubble gum in her life!

Sadie decided it was worth it and took the bath.

She got the bubble gum at last.
Sadie was very happy for herself!

Sadie asked her friends how to blow a bubble. One of them, Lilly, said "you have to flatten it out really good,
almost perfectly, and after that you have to blow it out really fast but also carefully. Make sure it is not too big and not too small." But... she blew too hard and something crazy happened!

I SHOT

ACROSS THE ROOM

Sadie's second friend,
Sylvie, told her to stretch
the gum out over her tongue. So, just in case, she decided to go over to the sink so she would not shoot the gum across the room again. But guess what happened

IT WENT DOWN THE DRAIN!

Sadie had to get another piece of bubble gum from her parents

Sadie

practiced and practiced.

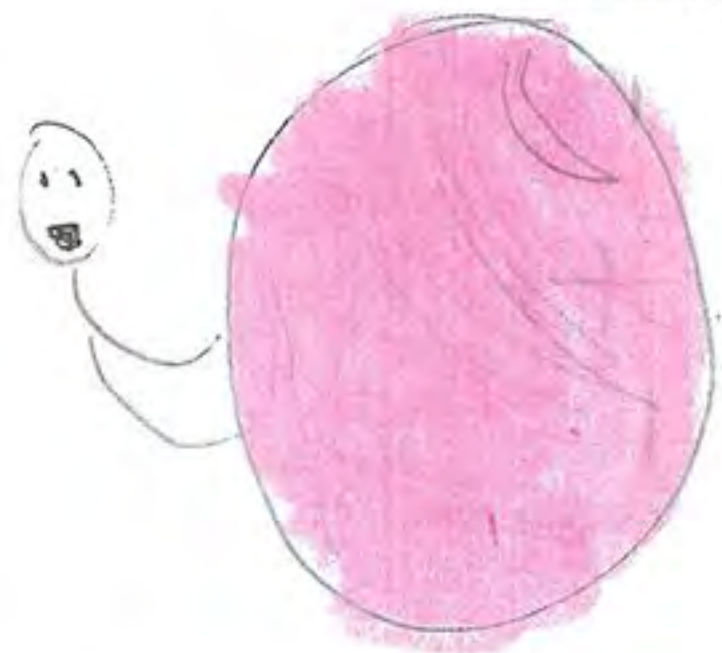

and

blew

and

blew

until a little itty bitty bubble started to appear!

It grew BIGGER

and

BIGGER

and

BIGGER

until it

EXPLODED,

right on Sadie's face!

"Back to Bath!"

Said Sadie's parents!

END
