

Chick at the Zoo

By Jack [redacted]

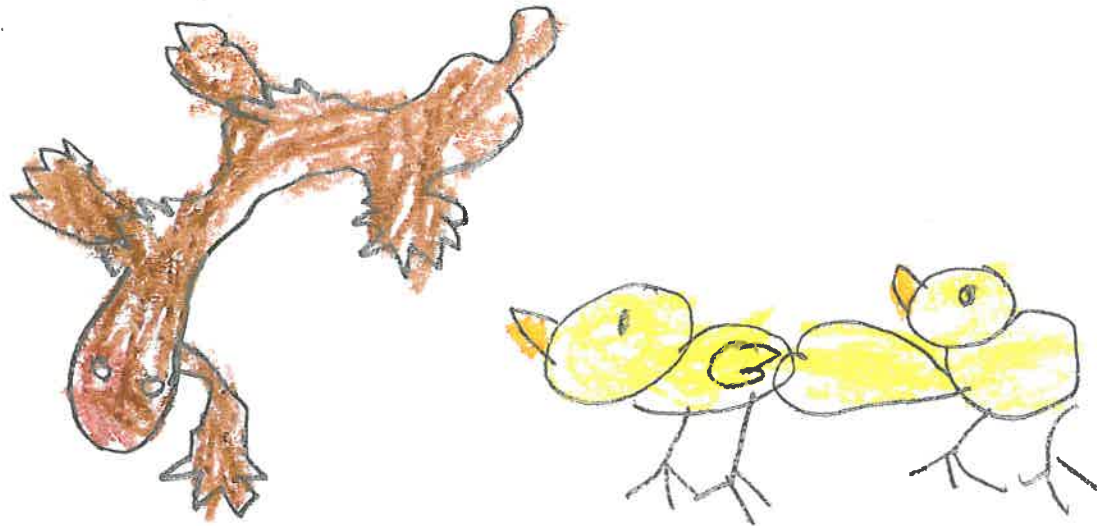

One day a chick went to the zoo! And he saw lots of animals!

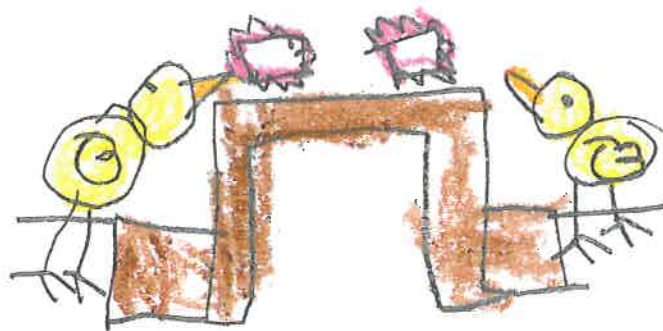

The chick wanted to see the big cats and they were the lions!

The chick said, "this is cool! I like these animals!"
Then, his mom said, "don't get lost."
And he promised her not to get lost.

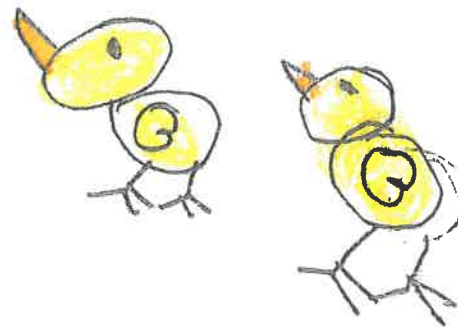

The chick and his mom took a break to eat lunch!
Yummy!

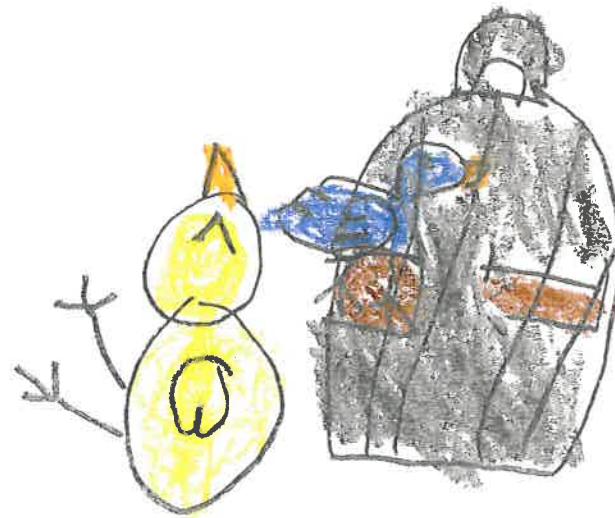

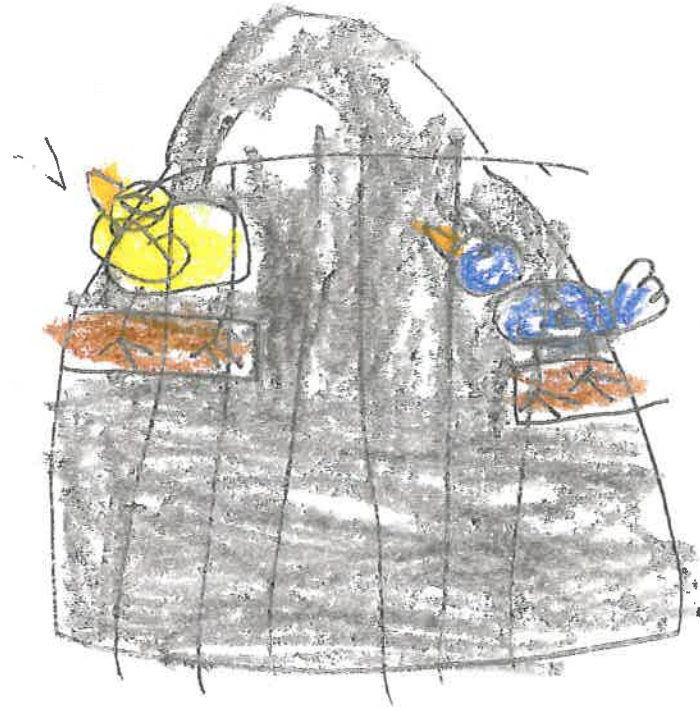

The chick saw some giraffes and some sloths hanging on trees!

And then the chick went to see the gorillas, but he lost his mom! And then he really wanted to see the birds, but he didn't know where they were. He was standing right in front of them, but he didn't notice. Suddenly the wind blew and blew the cage open! And it also blew the chick in the cage!

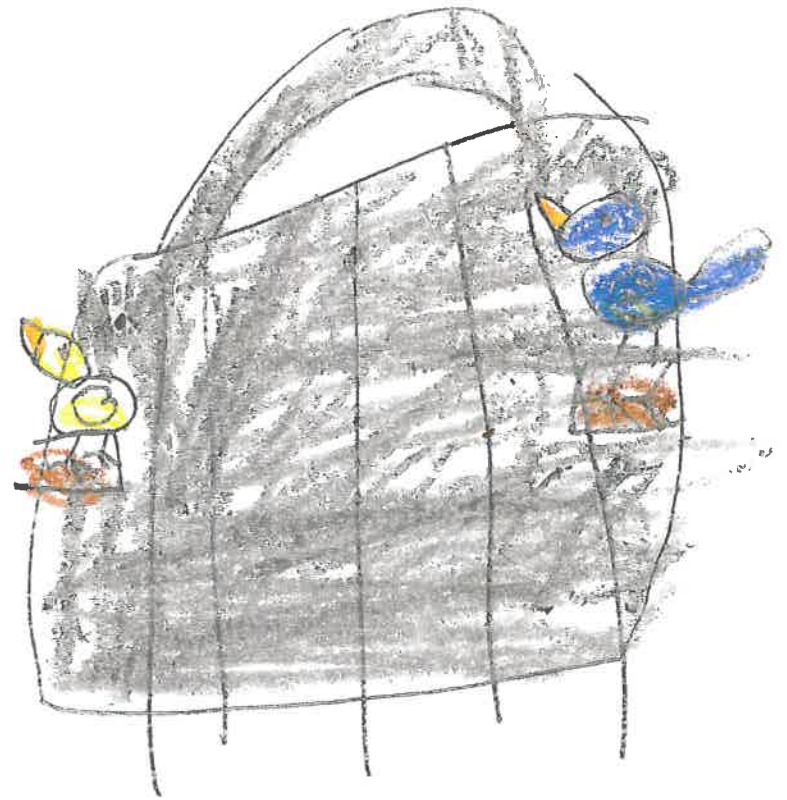

The chick yelled, "Mom! Mom! Where are you?"
And the birds said, "I want to see your mom. Where is she?"

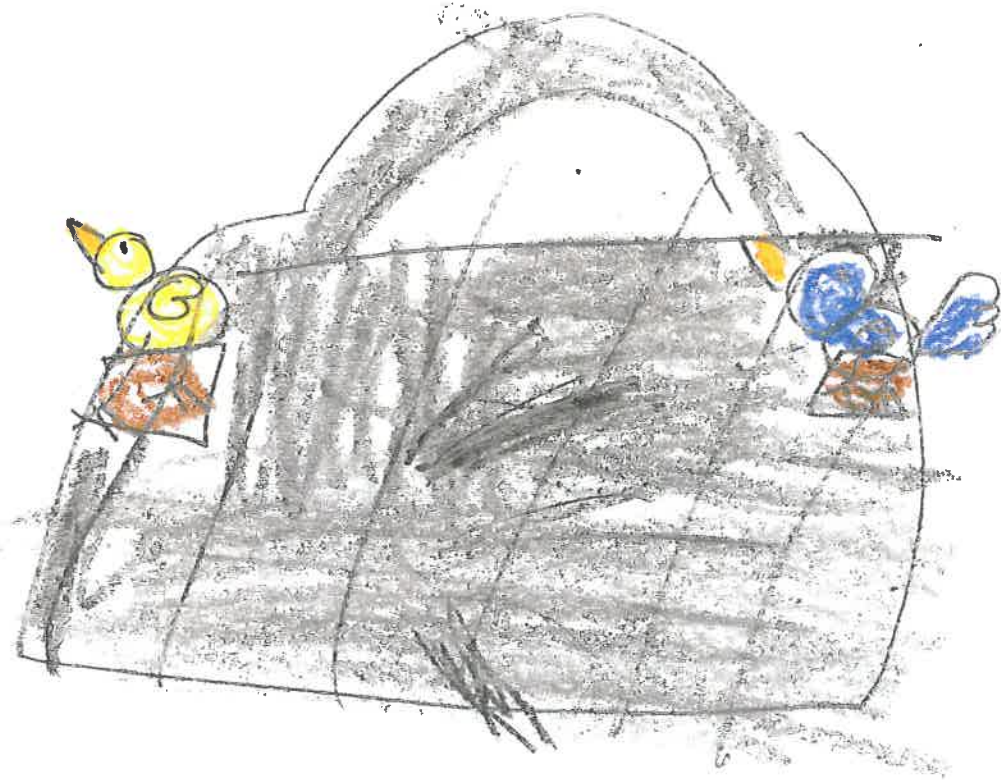

The giraffes looked at the cage and then they said, "Huh? Why is there a chick in that cage?"

The zookeeper closed the door of the bird cage! And then the giraffes wanted to break out because they really wanted to help the chick.

Then the zookeeper came back and he took the chick out and he took him to his momma.
