Little Buffalo Boy likes to go sledding with his friends...

...but he likes the sun better

He looks out the window.

It is snowing and snowing

The snow is so high, it covers his mailbox
No friends are outside.

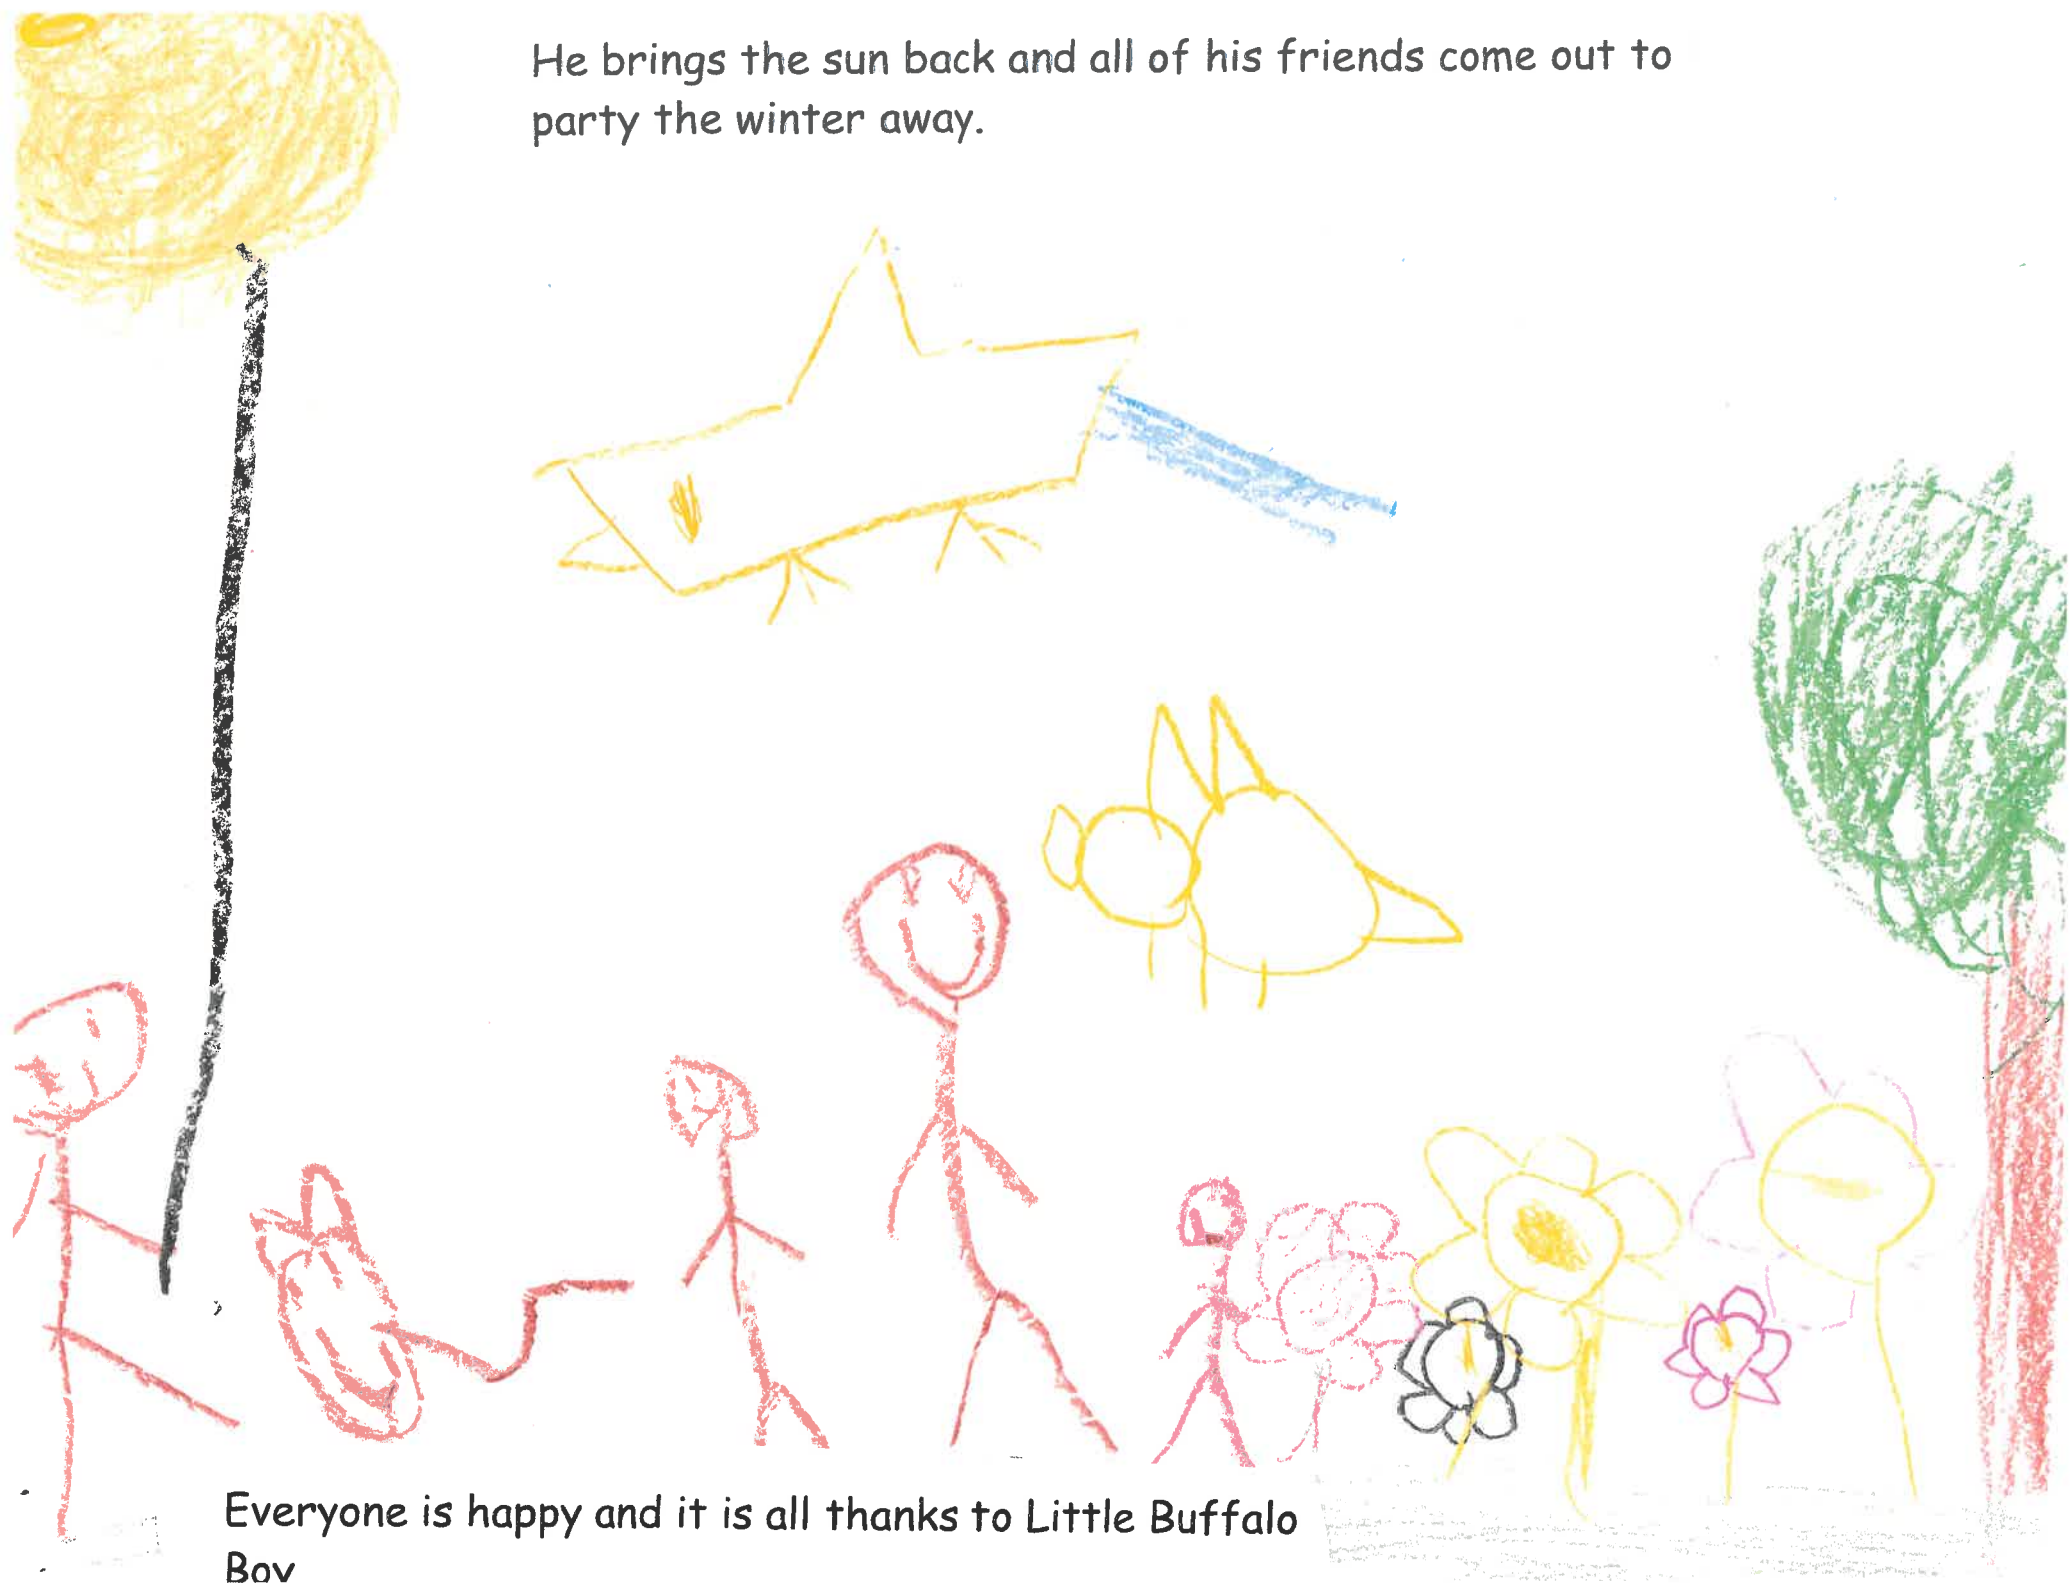

Little Buffalo Boy has an idea: He will go with his cat Fisher to outer space and fish for the sun!

International Space Station

He brings the sun back and all of his friends come out to party the winter away.

Everyone is happy and it is all thanks to Little Buffalo Boy
