

Chicken versus Super Ultra Mecha Chicken!

By Jack C [REDACTED]

One day there was a chicken who saw a house and inside was a boy who was creating a robot chicken called, "Super Ultra Mecha Chicken."

And the real chicken got really angry. So angry that it felt like it could burst into the house.
But then the boy was done with his robot chicken!

So the chicken hid on the side of the house and the boy walked outside and said to the robot chicken, "Go Robot Chicken, go!"

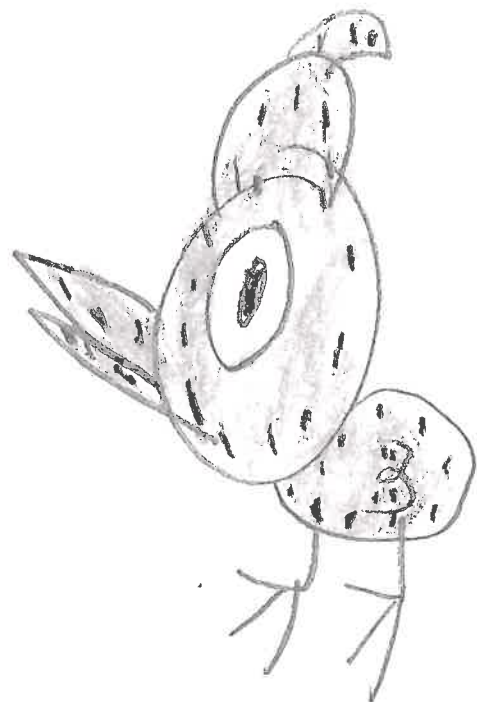

Then the real chicken saw the robot chicken and the robot chicken got angry! Then they started a fight. The robot chicken had a fireblaster in his mouth! But the real chicken dodged it.

Then they fought using their feathers and talons, and the real chicken plucked the hat off the robot chicken.

Then the real chicken put the hat back on his enemy and said, "let's be friends, chicken."
And off they went to the park.
