

The Adventures of Captain Adventure

by Vivian B [REDACTED]

“AARRRRGGGGG! I'm Captain Adventure and it's time to get our treasure! Hoist the sails mateys!”

The pirates set off on their ship called the Fiddle-Boat because all the sailors love to play pirate songs on their fiddles when their work is finished.

They thought that it was a nice day, but it was really a stormy day out on the sea. Once the sailors saw how stormy it was, they were all scared except for Captain Adventure who was only a seven year old girl.

Finally they sailed out of the storm and arrived at the island. They got off of the ship, got their shovels and went to the treasure. They dug a bbbbiiiiiggggg hole.

They made their rope ladder, climbed down it, grabbed the treasure, and went back to their ship. The treasure chest was filled with brand new fancy sailor outfits, a new captain outfit that said "Captain Adventure" on it, new hats, swords, jewels, and the best part was brand new fiddles!

Right away they unpacked their fiddles, put on their new clothes, and started playing pirate songs. They cheered that Captain Adventure the seven year old is the bravest and best captain.
