President and CEO

NOTE FROM THE PRESIDENT AND CEO

It is an honor to be officially here at WTVP PBS! As a viewer, you know that WTVP is a treasure. As a leader, I intend to safeguard, nurture, and grow WTVP, not just for us but also for the next generation of viewers, families, and children in our community.

The first thing you need to know about me is that I love living in central Illinois! The beautiful landscapes, locally grown produce, the incredible coffee roasters and restaurants, innovative start-ups, and the inspiring museums and local theatres...I could go on and on.

My husband, Eric, and I both grew up in Peoria. We've been married for 17 years, and (fun fact) we first met and fell in love while performing in a play at Corn Stock Theatre. After living and working in New York City for several years, we returned to Peoria to raise a family. We have three delightful children: Josie (9), Eliza (5), and Eben (3).

As a mom who sees her children already wrestling with the allure of limitless viewing options, I deeply value that WTVP cuts through the noise of pointless content, bringing only programs for all ages that educate, inform, and inspire. WTVP brings America's biggest classroom and the world's best concert stages into my home. I love that. As the results from our recent survey indicate, viewers like you do, too!

Thank you to the 1,200+ viewers who took our programming survey. You've told us what you love and what you could do without. You've told us where we are doing well and where we can improve. You've told us how much you value WTVP. We promise to use every dollar you give to ensure that this station continues to deliver the great programming you rely on. You can learn more about the survey results in this guide or by visiting our website. Be sure to watch the new WTVP NOW segments airing this month where staff and board members answer your questions voiced through the survey. The future of WTVP is a conversation that you are a part of. We will continue to chart our course with your key values and interests in mind.

Until next time,

AUDIENCE SURVEY RESULTS

WATCH WTVP NOW ON AUDIENCE SURVEY RESULTS THURSDAY, MAY 2, 8:30 PM.

MAY HIGHLIGHTS

BRIEF HISTORY OF THE FUTURE

WEDNESDAYS, MAY 1 AND 8, 8 PM

A Brief History of the Future is a unique six-part PBS documentary series about our futures and how we can reimagine them. Hosted by renowned futurist Ari Wallach, the show invites viewers on a journey around the world filled with discovery, hope and possibility about where we find ourselves today and what could come next.

ROADTRIP NATION: EDUCATION'S FUTURE – NEW

MONDAYS, MAY 6, 13, 20 AND 27, 10:30 PM

Follow two groups of young educators as they figure out how to better engage with their students and communities. These teachers explore new ideas to improve education and transform students' experiences in the classroom. Through their journey, viewers see how much is possible when communities come together to address the needs of students as individuals with unique stories.

EPIC TRAIN JOURNEYS FROM A COPPER CANYON RAILWAY

SUNDAY, MAY 12, 6 PM

The luxury El Chepe train is a wonder of Mexican engineering that took 100 years to build through the world's largest canyon region, Copper Canyon. The Bergen Line is a triumph of engineering in the face of extraordinary natural obstacles: fjords, freezing conditions and rogue wildlife.

PHOTOGRAPHIC JUSTICE: THE CORKY LEE STORY

MONDAY, MAY 13, 9 PM

Using his camera as a weapon against injustice, Chinese-American photographer Corky Lee's art is his activism. His unforgettable images of Asian American life empowered generations. This film's intimate portrait reveals the triumphs and tragedies of the man behind the lens.

THE EXPRESS WAY WITH DULE HILL: CHICAGO

TUESDAY, MAY 14, 8 PM

Chicago is a city known for its rich history and culture. But for some, it's been marred by crime and violence. In this episode, Dulé Hill meets the city's talented artists to explore why art and activism are often synonymous in the Midwest.

POMPEII: THE NEW DIG

WEDNESDAYS, MAY 15, 22 AND 29, 9 PM

Follow the most extensive archaeological excavation in Pompeii for a generation. Nearly two years in the making, with exclusive access to the dig and the all-Italian team of archaeologists, the series follows the excavation of an entire city block, unearthing what life was like in Pompeii before the eruption and the horror faced by the victims, and those who survived, when Vesuvius erupted in AD 79.

INDEPENDENT LENS: THE TUBA THIEVES – NEW

MONDAY, MAY 20, 9 PM

What is the role of sound, and what does it mean to listen? Hard-of-hearing filmmaker Alison O’Daniel uses a series of tuba thefts in Los Angeles high schools as a jumping-off point to explore these questions. Through several d/Deaf people telling stories in a unique game of telephone, the central mystery of The Tuba Thieves isn’t about the theft of instruments but the nature of sound itself.

AMERICAN EXPERIENCE: THE RIOT REPORT – NEW

TUESDAY, MAY 21, 8 PM

Revisit 1967 when inner cities across America erupted in violence. LBJ appointed the Kerner Commission to investigate, and the Commission’s final report offered a shockingly unvarnished assessment of race relations that still resonates today.

FINDING FESTIVALS: DUBLIN IRISH FEST

SATURDAY, MAY 25, 6:30 PM

Irish heritage is celebrated annually during the Dublin Irish Festival. While visiting the city of Dublin for the Irish Fest, Haylie learns about the city’s local art and history and cheers on one of the featured spirits on the Celtic Cocktail Trail. At the festival, be immersed in Celtic culture, from music and dance to art and cuisine.

AMERICA REFRAMED IN SEARCH OF BENGALI HARLEM

THURSDAY, MAY 9, 7 PM

As a teen, Alaudin Ullah was swept up by the energy of hip-hop and rebelled against his Bangladeshi roots. Now a playwright contending with post-9/11 Hollywood's Islamophobia, he sets out to tell his parents' stories. In Search of Bengali Harlem tracks his quest from mid-20th-century Harlem to Bangladesh, unveiling intertwined histories of South Asian Muslims, African Americans, and Puerto Ricans.

LOCAL, USA
CHINATOWN AUXILIARY

MONDAY, MAY 13, 8 PM

For decades, a group of Chinese residents, now grandpas and grandmas, have patrolled the streets of Manhattan's Chinatown as NYPD volunteer police while fighting to find belonging in a country that felt foreign and unwelcoming to them. Patrolling in NYPD Auxiliary uniform is their way of protecting the few blocks they call home and assimilating into the mainstream. From the savage tribulation in the '70s to "Asian Hate" during the COVID-19 pandemic, these stories remind us of the hope the U.S. represented to the tired, the poor, and the huddled masses yearning to belong.
