

Narrative Writing

WRITE ON!

EQT

writeonkids.org

Story Structure Use this narrative writing guide for your story!
Learn about exposition, rising action, climax, falling action, and resolution.

Climax

This is the turning point! The character faces the conflict. They may go through changes. You might even include their thoughts and feelings.

Rising Action

This is where your conflict develops, and the suspense builds!

Falling Action

This is where you can tie loose ends. The character takes action leading to a solution of the conflict. It's time to conclude the adventure!

Exposition

Build the context for your story. Introduce your characters. What is the setting? Introduce the conflict or problem your character runs into.

Your Story

Resolution

Wrap up your story. The resolution may include a memory, decision, feeling, or wish!

WRITE ON!
EQT

a program of created in partnership with

Narrative Writing Graphic Organizer

Who are the characters and what is your setting? What problem do they face? How do they solve their conflict?

Conflict

A large white rectangular box for writing the conflict.

Exposition

A large white rectangular box for writing the exposition.

Rising Action

Falling Action

Resolution

A large white rectangular box for writing the resolution.

Write This!

Use this graphic organizer
to get started!

WRITE ON!

EQT

A large, empty rectangular box with a blue border, intended for a graphic organizer or drawing.

A rectangular box with a blue border containing five horizontal blue lines for writing.

Graphic Organizer

Figure out the details of your story! Who is the character? What did they do? When do they do it? Where is the setting? Why did they do it?

WRITE ON!

EQT

Who?

Did what?

When?

Where?

Why?

WRITERS CONTEST

Writing Graphic Organizer

When writing about a topic, use supporting details to strengthen your paragraph.

Topic

Topic Sentence/Main Idea

Supporting Details

1.

2.

3.

Concluding Statement

WRITERS
CONTEST

Writing Graphic Organizer

When writing about a topic, use supporting details to strengthen your paragraph.

Topic

Topic Sentence/Main Idea

Supporting Details

Elaborations

WRITERS CONTEST

Writing Graphic Organizer

When writing about a topic, use supporting details to strengthen your paragraph.

Body Paragraph

--

Details

--

--

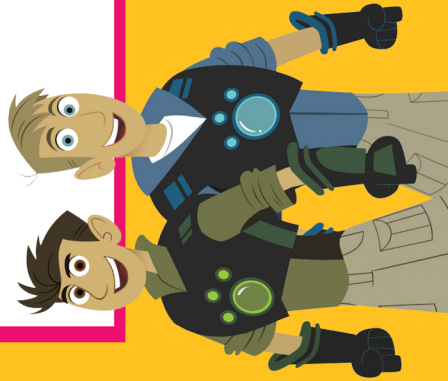

--

Elaborations

--	--	--

--	--	--

--	--	--

WRITE ON! EQT

Graphic Organizer

Use this writing graphic organizer to create an introductory paragraph!

Hook

Narrow the Topic

Thesis Statement

Restate Thesis Statement

General Connection to TPA

Clincher/Thought/Feeling